On the Road to Cuastecomate John Osborn, 2011-08-08

Dear Reader enclosed you will find a set of short stories It includes actual events from the authors life and imagined events from the authors mind Fact and fiction so to speak As with most books except those heavy serious textbook tomes the tales tell of personal and interpersonal emotions and actions As the saying goes we are not alone Each and every one of us affects both each other and the world around us Moreover each and every one of us have talents and unlike the servant who buried his given talents under a stone the author believes that the sharing of talents can in fact may help someone or something somewhere Maybe consciously or unconsciously actively or unseen small or enormously each and every one of us has an opportunity to act We could all do our bits to the best of our ability the possible if you like while still striving for the dream We all have our own roads to Cuastecomate
