Social Change Gender And Violence Postcommunist And War Affected Societies:

Social Change, Gender and Violence Vesna Nikolic-Ristanovic, 2002-07-31 Social Change Gender and Violence explores the impact of transition from communism and war on the everyday life of women and men as well as the ways in which everyday life and gender related changes affect women's vulnerability to domestic violence and trafficking in women. The book also explores the impact of micro level changes on the development of civil society, women's movement and legal and policy changes regarding violence against women. BOOK JACKET Social Change, Gender and Violence V.

Nikolic-Ristanovic, 2013-04-17 Based on large research material collected in Hungary, Macedonia, Serbia and Bulgaria, Social Change Gender and Violence is the book which explores the impact of transition from communism and war on everyday life of women and men as well as the way how everyday life and gender related changes affect women's vulnerability to domestic violence and trafficking in women. The book also explores the impact of micro level changes on development of civil society, women's movement and legal and policy changes regarding violence against women. This is a unique book which tries to look at violence against women as connected to oppression of both women and men. It argues that violence against women in post communist and war affected societies is significantly connected to the increase of social stratification, economic hardship, unemployment, instability, uncertainty and related social stresses, changes in gender identity and structural inequalities brought by new world order. Using largely accounts of more than hundred interviewed people, the author shows vividly how in post communist societies the contradictions of capitalism are interlaced with the mostly negative relics of communism. Moreover, the book shows how contradictory processes in post communist societies have led to a rather paradoxical result: political pluralism and a capitalist economic system generated both violence against women and a women's movement, albeit not the conditions for a reduction of violence.

Gender Politics and Security Discourse Laura McLeod, 2015-07-16 This book investigates competing modes of thought about gender security and aims to understand the policy implications of personal political imaginations. The work draws upon extensive research conducted by the author in Serbia to develop a comprehensive picture of how feminist and women's organising relates to the broader national and international contexts surrounding gender security. Through an innovative analytical framework of personal political imaginations, the book explores the role that memories, perceptions and hopes about conflict and post conflict have upon the logics of gender security. It investigates how contrasting and competing modes of thought about gender security are made, paying attention to how the dynamics of gender politics in Serbia shape the security discourse and narratives of activists. The volume explores in detail how feminist and women's organisations have responded to UNSCR 1325 by analysing two policy debates and campaigns that seek to achieve its goals and gender security in Serbia: 1) feminist antimilitarism and 2) connecting domestic violence to the abuse of small arms and light weapons. Ultimately, the book argues that the configuration of gender security discourse is intimately linked to personal political imaginations of conflict and post conflict. This book will be of much interest to students.

of gender politics conflict studies critical security studies European politics and IR in general Women and Children as Victims and Offenders: Background, Prevention, Reintegration Helmut Kury, Slawomir Redo, Evelyn Shea, 2016-06-20 This work compiles experiences and lessons learned in meeting the unique needs of women and children regarding crime prevention and criminal justice in particular the treatment and social reintegration of offenders and serves as a cross disciplinary work for academic and policy making analyses and follow up in developing and developed countries Furthermore it argues for a more humane and effective approach to countering delinquency and crime among future generations In a world where development positively depends on the rule of law and the related investment security two global trends may chart the course of development urbanization and education Urbanization will globalize the concepts of justice and fairness education will be dominated by the urban mindset and digital service economy just as a culture of lawfulness will This work looks at crime prevention education as an investment in the sustainable quality of life of succeeding generations and at those who pursue such crime prevention as the providers of much needed skills in the educational portfolio Adopting a reformist approach this work collects articles with findings and recommendations that may be relevant to domestic and international policymaking including the United Nations Studies and their educational value for the welfare of coming generations The books address the relevant United Nations ideas by combining them with academic approaches Guided by the Editors respective fields of expertise and in full recognition of academic freedom and organized scepticism it includes contributions by lawyers criminologists sociologists and other eminent experts seeking to bridge the gap between academic and policy perspectives as appropriate against the international background including the United Nations developments The second volume opens with Part IV which presents articles on different kinds of crime prevention The effectiveness of punishment and in particular imprisonment is examined by contrasting it with alternative sanctions and the following questions are raised Does harsh punishment have a crime preventive effect What are the side effects of imprisonment on the offenders and their families Are alternatives such as restorative justice or mediation more effective and cheaper Part V outlines proactive strategies of crime prevention e g for potential sex offenders or in the domain of internet crime Part VI envisions a more peaceful and inclusive society which would be realized by improving the protection of women and children in their everyday life and easing the reintegration of those who have become offenders The importance of the role played by the UN in formulating these goals is underlined The volume concludes with an epilogue of the 70th President of the United Nations Economic and Social Council Martin Sajdik and a post scriptum of the editors p Economies of Violence Jennifer Suchland, 2015-07-23 Recent human rights campaigns against sex trafficking have focused on individual victims treating trafficking as a criminal aberration in an otherwise just economic order In Economies of Violence Jennifer Suchland directly critiques these explanations and approaches as they obscure the reality that trafficking is symptomatic of complex economic and social dynamics and the economies of violence that sustain them Examining United Nations proceedings on women s rights issues government and NGO anti trafficking policies and campaigns by feminist activists Suchland contends that trafficking must be understood not solely as a criminal gendered and sexualized phenomenon but as operating within global systems of precarious labor neoliberalism and the transition from socialist to capitalist economies in the former Soviet Union and Eastern Bloc In shifting the focus away from individual victims and by underscoring trafficking s economic and social causes Suchland provides a foundation for building more robust methods for combatting human trafficking

Interpersonal Criminology K. Jaishankar,2016-08-05 Based on peer reviewed articles from the Second International Conference of the South Asian Society of Criminology and Victimology Interpersonal Criminology investigates the roots of crime and victimization rather than dissecting criminal behavior after the fact The book divides crime by type covering crimes against women crimes against children and youths culture conflict and victimization of groups and interpersonal cybercrimes Perfect for criminal justice practitioners and advanced human rights criminology and victimology students Interpersonal Criminology explores the complexities of crime and interpersonal events in both established and emerging fields of criminology including those concerning women and minorities

Ethnic Conflict and War Crimes in the Balkans Jelena Obradovic,2013-07-15 In the years following the fall of Slobodan Milosevic Serbian social cultural and political responses to the wars of the 1990s have fallen under intense scrutiny In Ethnic Conflict and War Crimes in the Balkans Jelena Obradovic Wochnik explores some of those responses taking into consideration notions such as silence denial and conspiracy theory the book sheds some light on the complicated narratives about the 1990s The book considers the experience of knowing witnessing and speaking about atrocities and thus contributes to the debates on confronting the past in Serbia Specifically it considers how individuals of the ordinary public in Serbia reflect upon understand and keep secrets about the 1991 1999 conflicts in Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina and Kosovo and the atrocities human rights abuses and war crimes which were committed there Close attention is paid to the stories of individuals whose voices and experiences are generally excluded from the broader debate about the past Jelena Obradovic Wozniak explores how these narratives diverge from resist and are invisible to the formal and civil society initiatives aimed at confronting the past in Serbia In doing so the book also explores silence about and denial of the violent past and considers how and where these dynamics manifest and what they might mean In addition it covers themes such as narratives of self victimhood conspiracy theory and the perception of war time leaders and combatants This is a detailed and considered investigation into how groups cope with knowledge and the witnessing of violent pasts It is based on ethnographic research and interviews with a group of ordinary individuals in post Milosevic Serbia As such it provides a unique perspective on the lived experience of the conflicts and the ways in which stories of the 1990s emerge in everyday contexts Regulation of Sexual Conduct in UN Peacekeeping Operations Olivera

Simic, 2012-05-25 This book critically examines the response of the United Nations UN to the problem of sexual exploitation in UN Peace Support Operations It assesses the Secretary General's Bulletin on Special Protection from Sexual Exploitation and Sexual Abuse 2003 SGB and its definition of sexual exploitation which includes sexual relationships and prostitution With reference to people affected by the policy using the example of Bosnian women and UN peacekeepers and taking account of both radical and sex positive feminist perspectives the book finds that the inclusion of consensual sexual relationships and prostitution in the definition of sexual exploitation is not tenable The book argues that the SGB is overprotective relies on negative gender and imperial stereotypes and is out of step with international human rights norms and gender equality It concludes that the SGB must be revised in consultation with those affected by it namely local women and peacekeepers and must fully respect their human rights and freedoms particularly the right to privacy and sexuality rights Family
