INTRODUCTION To many people the return of the Bradford Manuscript is a fresh discovery of colonial history By very many it has been called incorrectly the log of the Mayflower Indeed that is the title by which it is described in the decree of the Consistorial Court of London The fact is however that Governor Bradford undertook its preparation long after the arrival of the Pilgrims and it cannot be properly considered as in any sense a log or daily journal of the voyage of the Mayflower It is in point of fact a history of the Plymouth Colony chiefly in the form of annals extending from the inception of the colony down to the year 1647 The matter has been in print since 1856 put forth through the public spirit of the Massachusetts Historical Society which secured a transcript of the document from London and printed it in the society s proceedings of the above named year As thus presented it had copious notes prepared with great care by the late Charles Deane but these are not given in the present volume wherein only such comments as seem indispensable to a proper understanding of the story have been made leaving whatever elaboration may seem desirable to some future private enterprise It is a matter of regret that no picture of Governor Bradford exists Only Edward Winslow of the Mayflower Company left an authenticated portrait of himself and that painted in England is reproduced in this volume In those early days Plymouth would have been a poor field for portrait painters The people were struggling for their daily bread rather than for to morrow s fame through the transmission of their features to posterity The volume of the original manuscript as it was presented to the Governor of the Commonwealth and is now deposited in the State Library is a folio measuring eleven and one half inches in length seven and seven eighths inches in width and one and one half inches in thickness It is bound in parchment once white but now grimy and much the worse for wear being somewhat cracked and considerably scaled Much scribbling evidently by the Bradford family is to be seen upon its surface and out of the confusion may be read the name of Mercy Bradford a daughter of the governor On the inside of the front cover is pasted a sheet of manilla paper on which is written the following Consistory Court of the Diocese of London In the matter of the application of The Honorable Thomas Francis Bayard Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary in London of the United States of America for the delivery to him on behalf of the President and Citizens of the said States of the original manuscript book entitled and known as The Log of the Mayflower Produced in Court this 25th day of March 1897 and marked with the letter A HARRY W LEE Registrar 1 Deans Court Doctors Commons Then come two manilla leaves on both sides of which is written the decree of the Consistorial Court These leaves and the manilla sheet pasted on the inside of the front cover were evidently inserted after the decree was passed
