Real bravery to me
Is doing everything you weren't taught to do Making choices you didn't know you could make Taking steps you've never seen anyone take
And learning how to do so along the way

A large, stylized teal leaf graphic is positioned behind the second stanza of text, extending from the center towards the right side.

Real bravery
Is doing what you did not think you could do Going where you did not know you could go
And feeling things you never thought you could feel So forget everything you know
And be brave Because real bravery cannot be taught

It can only be experienced
