Stringer,2002-05-31 All but the final paper in this collection of nine essays was read at a June 1999 conference of the same title as the book held at the U of Birmingham UK The conference was organized by the Worship in Birmingham Project bringing together established scholars and research students to discuss the For Us and for Our Salvation Robert E. Schmitz,2025-05-05 A renewal of pastoral theology is required to address the growing disconnect between the proclamation of the way of Jesus Christ and the lives of contemporary believers Pastoral ministers need to explore a dimension of the truth called performatory truth This dimension inspires life construction It must glean from the revelation what faith does to believers for believers and in believers the functions of faith Upon reflection on performatory truth and the functions of faith this work experiments with the propositions of the Nicene Creed to find a life constructing dimension How does belief in one God help define human relations How does the Incarnation help value the human How does Father Almighty bring believers to a Christian form of power and authority What does it mean when the Lord calls believers to take up the cross How can one imagine life in the Father in Son in the Holy Spirit in the church This reconnection of the Christian truth with contemporary life will assist preachers and teachers and inspire believers to live the Lord s way even in these strange times Globalization and the Mission of the Church Neil J. Ormerod,Shane Clifton,2011-10-27 Various social political economic and cultural commentators are presently arguing that human history is reaching a decisive stage in its development a stage marked by increased interconnection between peoples the compression of space and time a sharing of ideas at unprecedented levels global trade and finance and so on The shorthand word used to encompass these phenomena is globalization Some embrace it others reject it while still others dispute its existence But with the abundance of literature and debate that it generates the topic cannot be ignored From its inception in the missionary mandate of Jesus Matthew 28 Christianity has had a global dimension to its mission Christianity is not a spectator to globalization but one of its agents one of the forces at work which have extended interconnection between peoples shared ideas and promoted social political and cultural links The purpose of the present work is not to provide a complete response to the question of the mission of the church in a globalizing world but to establish a framework within which answers may be sought Grounded in the writings of Bernard Lonergan and Robert Doran it develops a theology of history and addresses the churches response to the impact of globalization on vital social cultural personal and religious values The project brings together the perspectives of Catholicism and Pentecostalism the former providing a depth of wisdom and tradition the latter drawing on the insight of a newly emerging movement that has taken root in every continent with remarkable energy and enthusiasm Explorations in Twentieth-century Theology and Philosophy Ann Loades,2023-04-11 Ann Loades has been instrumental in bringing forward for the attention of readers
