Connecting Childhood and Old Age in Popular Media Vanessa Joosen, 2018-01-19 Contributions by Gökçe Elif Baykal Lincoln Geraghty Verónica Gottau Vanessa Joosen Sung Ae Lee Cecilia Lindgren Mayako Murai Emily Murphy Mariano Narodowski Johanna Sjoberg Anna Sparrman Ingrid Tomkowiak Helma van Lierop Debrauwer Ilgim Veryeri Alaca and Elisabeth Wesseling Media narratives in popular culture often assign interchangeable characteristics to childhood and old age presuming a resemblance between children and the elderly These designations in media can have far reaching repercussions in shaping not only language but also cognitive activity and behavior The meaning attached to biological numerical age even the mere fact that we calculate a numerical age at all is culturally determined as is the way people act their age With populations aging all around the world awareness of intergenerational relationships and associations surrounding old age is becoming urgent Connecting Childhood and Old Age in Popular Media caters to this urgency and contributes to age literacy by supplying insights into the connection between childhood and senescence to show that people are aged by culture Treating classic stories like the Brothers Grimm's fairy tales and Heidi pop culture hits like The Simpsons and Mad Men and international productions such as Turkish television cartoons and South Korean films contributors explore the recurrent idea that children are like old people as well as other relationships between children and elderly characters as constructed in literature and media from the mid nineteenth century to the present This volume deals with fiction and analyzes language as well as verbally sparse visual productions including children's literature film television animation and advertising The Power of Instinct Leslie Zane, 2024-06-18 Award winning Fortune 500 brand consultant and behavioral

expert Leslie Zane shatters conventional marketing wisdom showing readers how to tap into the hidden brain where instinct prevails creating a powerful network of connections that drive people to buy your product company or vision People don't make decisions with their conscious mind but on instinct In The Power of Instinct marketing consultant and behavioral science expert Leslie Zane shows that to grow a brand business or even a social movement traditional persuasion tactics fall short Instead you must connect to the instinctive mind And to do this you need to understand the science of consumer choice and employ techniques that work with a person's brain not against it Zane uncovers the hidden network of connections that dictates the snap decisions we make and cracks the code on how to influence it With a revolutionary set of rules for expanding the network Zane shows us how to make any brand business political candidate or idea the dominant instinctive choice With science as your guide as well as stories from the world's most successful brands from McDonald's and Lululemon to the Yankees and Taylor Swift you'll learn What kind of messages create the greatest amount of positive associations Why finding new customers accelerates growth and relying on existing ones is a trap Why emotional stories are not enough to drive trial and long term brand loyalty Whether you're an entrepreneur Fortune 500 executive marketing professional or job seeker mastering the power of instinct will help supercharge your growth and make whatever you're selling the first choice for any audience

Engineering, 1895 Wittgenstein among the Sciences Rupert Read, Edited by Simon

Summers, 2016-02-17 Engaging with the question of the extent to which the so called human economic or social sciences are actually sciences this book moves away from the search for a criterion or definition that will allow us to sharply distinguish the scientific from the non scientific Instead the book favours the pursuit of clarity with regard to the various enterprises undertaken by human beings with a view to dissolving the felt need for such a demarcation In other words Read pursues a therapeutic approach to the issue of the status and nature of these subjects Discussing the work of Kuhn Winch and Wittgenstein in relation to fundamental question of methodology Wittgenstein among the Sciences undertakes an examination of the nature of natural science itself in the light of which a series of successive cases of putatively scientific disciplines are analysed A novel and significant contribution to social science methodology and the philosophy of science and the human sciences this book will be of interest to social scientists and philosophers as well as to psychiatrists economists and cognitive scientists
