The Burning Fountain A Study In The Language Of Symbolism:

The Burning Fountain Philip Wheelwright, 1954 A defense of the validity of poetic religious meaning of symbolic language

The Burning Fountain, a Study in the Language of Symbolism. Philip Wheelwright Philip Wheelwright, 1954 Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture

The Dark Matter of Words Timothy Walsh, 1998 Timothy Walsh's study of the function and significance of absence in literature demonstrates its centrality in terms of both literary technique and philosophical consequence Textual gaps narrative lacunae and strategic vagueness together with the uncertainties that such devices inevitably generate have been essential elements of literature from Lao Tzu to Lawrence from Chaucer to Faulkner and beyond Walsh finds that poststructural approaches to indeterminacy tend to overlook the specific and productive roles that absence and uncertainty often play within the overall design of a work The aesthetic generation of uncertainty he demonstrates is not a roadblock on the path to meaning or a sign of some radical and suppressed internal contradiction rather it is as basic an artistic aim as the desire to evoke sympathy laughter or outrage Coining the phrase structured absence to explain a central tenet in his discussion of the mechanics of uncertainty Walsh analyzes various literary devices and tropes involved in generating a felt sense of absence and a purposeful uncertainty Structured absences he demonstrates combine to form intricate patterns and networks which explains how the dynamic potential of uncertainty can increase exponentially through a deft orchestration of absence Walsh argues that the use of absence in works of art of silence shadow blankness and void is a principal means by which the inherent biological limitations of human consciousness and of human language are encoded in aesthetic constructs Because of the limitations of our senses and because we often are more attuned to what lies beyond the threshold of perceptual limits the lacunae in artistic works represent attempts to replicate the real and inescapable limits of human experience The Lamb Christology of the Apocalypse of John Loren L.

Johns,2014-11-10 Revision of the author s thesis Ph D Princeton Theological Seminary 1998 Making History Carol Bakhos,Alyssa M. Gray,2024-03-29 Essays in this volume honor Richard L Kalmin one of the leading scholars of rabbinic literature Volume contributors explore a variety of topics related to Kalmin s wide ranging work from the development of the Talmud to rabbinic storytelling from the transmission of tales across geographic and cultural boundaries to ancient Jewish and Iranian interactions Many of the essays reflect current trends in how scholars use ancient Jewish literary sources to address questions of historical import Contributors include Carol Bakhos Beth A Berkowitz Noah Bickart Robert Brody Joshua Cahan Shaye J D Cohen Steven D Fraade Shamma Friedman Alyssa M Gray Judith Hauptman Christine Hayes Catherine Hezser Marc Hirshman David Kraemer Marjorie Lehman Kristen Lindbeck Jonathan S Milgram Chaim Milikowsky Michael L Satlow Marcus Mordecai Schwartz Seth Schwartz Burton L Visotzky and Sarah Wolf W.H.Hudson And The Elusive Paradise David Miller,1990-02-19 Methodology for the Human Sciences Donald E. Polkinghorne,1984-06-30 Methodology for the Human Sciences addresses the growing need for a comprehensive textbook that surveys the emerging body of literature on human science research and clearly describes procedures and methods for carrying out new research strategies It provides an overview of developing methods describes their commonalities and variations and contains practical information on how to implement strategies in the field In it Donald Polkinghorne calls for a renewal of debate over which methods are appropriate for the study of human beings proposing that the results of the extensive changes in the philosophy of science since 1960 call for a reexamination of the original issues of this debate The book traces the history of the deliberations from Mill and Dilthey to Hempel and logical positivism examines recently developed systems of inquiry and their importance for the human sciences and relates these systems to the practical problems of doing research on topics related to human experience It discusses historical realism systems and structures phenomenology and hermeneutics action theory and the implications recent systems have for a revised human science methodology Nefer Willie Cannon-Brown,2007-11-21 This book provides an original treatment of the concept of good and beauty in ancient Egypt It seeks to examine the dimensions of nefer the term used to describe the good and the beautiful within the context of ordinary life Because the book is based upon original research on ancient Egypt it opens up space for a review of the aesthetics of other African societies in the Nile Valley Thus it serves as a heuristic for further research and scholarship Halloween and Other Festivals of Death and Life Jack Santino,2025-03-14 Why do we celebrate Halloween No one gets the day off and unlike all other major holidays it has no religious or governmental affiliation A survivor of our pre Christian agrarian roots it has become one of the most popular and widely celebrated festivals on the contemporary American calendar Jack Santino has put together the first collection of essays to examine the evolution of Halloween from its Celtic origins through its adaptation into modern culture Using a wide variety of perspectives and approaches the thirteen essayists examine customs communities and material culture to reveal how Halloween has manifested itself throughout all aspects of our society to become not just a marginal survivor of a dying tradition but a thriving contemporary post industrial festival Its steadily increasing popularity despite overcommercialization and criticism is attributed to its powerful symbolism that employs both pre Christian images and concepts from popular culture to appeal to groups of all ages orientations and backgrounds However the essays in this volume also suggest that there is something ironic and unsettling about the immense popularity of a holiday whose main images are of death evil and the grotesque Halloween and other Festivals of Death and Life is a unique contribution that questions our concepts of religiosity and spirituality while contributing to our understanding of Halloween as a rich and diverse reflection of our society s past present and future identity
