

The Canoe Camper's Handbook

Ray Beurse

Canoeing can be sheer delight—an escape from the man-made world, an exhilarating blend of the silence and sounds of nature with the rhythmic exertions of a passage earned by your own body rather than by the combination of gasoline, a form of travel in which nearly all the fun is the activity rather than the goal.

The canoeing can be sheer hell—a nightmare of inappropriate, forgotten, or lost equipment, backbreaking portages, inclement weather and rough waters, and unforeseen hazards from mosquitoes to waterfalls. Don't let it be that way for you!

The Canoe Camper's Handbook answers all your questions: canoe types, sizes, and materials; how to paddle and pole; how to handle a canoe in every type of water; how to care for the several types of canoes and repair them; how to select and use basic canoe-camping gear, from clothing, tents, and sleeping bags to food, kitchen equipment, and first-aid kits; how to navigate with compass and map, and where to get the maps you'll need; how to assemble and pack your gear so that you will neither run out of necessary items nor suffer when you reach portage; where the best canoeing areas are, and what rivers and lakes are appropriate for your level of experience.

This authoritative, practical book is a must for everyone interested in canoe camping. It is written by an author whose name has earned all the answers from his own extensive experience, and his love for canoeing illuminates every page.

The Canoe and White Water C.E.S. Franks,1977-12-15 The exhilaration of challenging and surviving rapids in a fragile canoe has made white water canoeing one of the fastest growing sports in Canada Much of this book is concerned with analyzing white water with the techniques for handling it rather than trying to conquer it by brute force with canoeing safety and with the planning and organizing of safe but adventurous trips But The Canoe and White Water goes far beyond primers in canoeing skills It sets the sport in the contexts of history technology geology and physics The author describes how canoes have been made over the centuries the factors governing their design and the features to look for in choosing one today In tracing the history of the canoe he rediscovers part of the Canadian heritage His own experience has led him to pursue the sciences which help the canoeist understand the sport he discusses the physics of river turbulence the geological formation of rivers and environmental questions His interests range from the personal rights of modern canoeists to the eating habits of the voyageurs of old The book reflects his enthusiasm and his research The text is illustrated with modern photographs instructive drawings of paddle strokes and river situations It is a clear concise and interesting account which will delight the enthusiast and intrigue the curious Backpacker ,1975 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured The Camper's Handbook Thomas Holding,2017-09-21 Camping as a recreational activity entered into popular society over 100 years ago It is widely accepted that Thomas Hiram Holding was one of the first proponents of the activity which is gaining in popularity every year and will continue to do so through the effects of the current economic climate There are currently over 1 2 million people who use camping as their main holiday within the UK and this is set to grow in my opinion Holding wrote the first

Camper's Handbook in 1908 This book described to people for the first time the basics of camping The knowledge required to write this book he learnt whilst traveling with a wagon train across the prairies of America The journey taken with his family in 1853 at the age of 9 was 1200 miles long we can only marvel at the experiences he must have had In 1887 he visited the highlands of Scotland whilst on a cruise and decided to camp from his canoe Holding was also a keen cyclist and it was after a conversation with a friend he later embarked on what could have been the first bicycle camping trip which they took in Ireland For this trip Holding designed some easily portable camping equipment embarking with 4 friends in the late 1800s He wrote a book about this experience entitled Cycle and Camp in Connemara 1898 the book has an open invitation for fellow enthusiasts to contact him which led to the formation of Association of Cycle Campers in 1901 This very rare and now out of print book is a facsimile reprint and may contain small imperfections Backpacker ,1974 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world's first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker's Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured
