[RECIPIENT'S ADDRESS]

Dear [RECIPIENT'S NAME],

I write you this letter in light of recent circumstances. As you know, our relationship and marriage have been a roller coaster journey, with its own peaks and troughs. It has become increasingly clear that we have embarking on separate directions in our individual lives.

It is with a heavy heart and due respect that I suggest it may be beneficial for both of us to consider a simple divorce. This decision is not one that has come about easily or hastily. Rather, it is a decision that has been weighed and considered deeply in hopes of the best outcome for both of us.

Please regard this letter as a necessary steppingstone in our lives, and let's navigate this with dignity and respect. It is critical that we seek the professional advice of our lawyers to smoothen this process. I remain hopeful that we can resolve and move forward from this in the most understanding and peaceful manner.

Respectfully yours,
