

Sir Osbert Sitwell's

"It would be hard to overpraise so strong and fine a work of literary art. The outstanding quality of his new book is his power of reading—or, at any rate, of describing—personality and character. Some of his sisters are renowned, but come to new life in his hands."—The Times Literary Supplement.

"... will occupy a unique place in the literature of this generation; and, I think, a permanent one in the literature of this country. Under this author's pen, faces change and speak, voices have intonation, seasons, with their following of sensation, are recaptured in their acuteness, and places, one might say, breathe."—ELIZABETH BOWEN in The Tatler.

"Here is the first volume of a group in that engaging form of retrospect which mingles personal chronicle with social scrutiny, and both with the wit and judgment of an informed and civilised mind."—IVOR BARNES in The Observer.

"All of the book is written with omniscient good taste, urbanity, wit, lucidity and charm. . . . To peruse it is like walking through a picture gallery conducted by the highly articulate and fluent descendant of the many ancestral portraits we gaze upon. But there are abundant objects on tables as well; odd diaries to pick up and read, incidental refreshments to take."—John O'London's Weekly.

"It is the work of a fine artist; a piece of social history which is of more than passing importance; a charming picture of the 'halcyon age' in which he grew up . . . brilliant portraits of people, above and below stairs, with their graces and oddities."—The Daily Telegraph.

"Sir Osbert Sitwell's new book is the best he has yet written . . . these recollections are as vitriolated as they are bright . . . we have in this book pictures of a home, a family, an order and an epoch seen through a small boy's eyes and remembered with acute vision by a grown man, an artist who takes as much trouble with his writing as he evidently takes pleasure in it. The faculty of beautiful reverie never swamps the desire to record fact."—SIR JOHN SYMONS in The Illustrated London News.
