An Unquenchable Thirst Mary Johnson, 2011-09-13 NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY KIRKUS REVIEWS A candid generous and profound spiritual memoir that deserves a great deal of thoughtful discussion Anne Rice At seventeen Mary Johnson experienced her calling when she saw a photo of Mother Teresa on the cover of Time magazine eighteen months later she began her training as a Missionary of Charity a nun in Mother Teresa's order Not without difficulty this boisterous independent minded teenager eventually adapted to the sister's austere life of poverty and devotion but beneath the white and blue sari beat the heart of an ordinary young woman who faced daily the simple and profound struggles we all share the same desires for love and connection Eventually after twenty years of service Johnson left the church to find her own path but her magnificently told story holds universal truths about the mysteries of faith and how a woman discovers herself Includes new material Two reading group guides for groups that wish to take different approaches to the book a conversation between Mary Johnson and Mira Bartok author of The Memory Palace and Mary Johnson's recommended reading list A wonderful achievement Johnson opens the window on a horizon of spiritual questions and takes an unflinching look inside her own heart The Christian Science Monitor An incredible coming of age story It has everything a memoir needs an inside look at a way of life that most of us will never see a physical and emotional
