character statements and providing support working to give the disaffected another chance And all the while in the background is the memory of another fighter his mother and her devastating decline into madness The Fighter is a moving and poetic portrait of a compassionate man but also a window onto the unnoticed recesses of Melbourne Arnold Zable is a highly acclaimed novelist storyteller educator and human rights advocate His books include Jewels and Ashes The Fig Tree Caf Scheherazade Scraps of Heaven Sea of Many Returns and Violin Lessons He lives in Melbourne Written in Zable's lyrical style The Fighter reads like a novel The text provides many aesthetic pleasures it also has heart and soul This is an excellent addition to the literature on the survivors of war focussing on the grief their families inherit Books Publishing A master storyteller Australian Book Review His ability to see the beauty in the ordinary in a world obsessed with the extraordinary informs every aspect of Zable's writing Australian Arnold Zable is a writer who turns the unnoticed and the overlooked into something fine and lustrous Courier Mail Arnold Zable is a long distance athlete among novelists and his command of his material is superb Years of reflection and his own life experiences have contributed to the mastery with which Zable explores the themes of displacement loss nostalgia and homecoming in all of his books Canberra Times Arnold Zable performs his own masterclass in literary shadowboxing in The Fighter He has a superb eye for detail and it serves the narrative exceptionally well Zable channels the story of an ordinary man a good man who to this day is still winning on points Saturday Paper Zable takes the art of the novel the attention to tone rhythm and perspective and applies it to the true story of Nissen This book is about more than boxing endeavor belonging and redemption It's also about Melbourne its light and shade and the people who fall between the cracks and the ones who survive Herald Sun A poignant tale of fortitude love and sorrow Arnold Zable draws an evocative portrait of post war Carlton underpinning his story of the compassionate man and the forces that moulded him Chronicle A truly inspiring slice of life tale Zable skilfully peels back the layers of Henry's troubled mum Sonia and the effect it has had on the family Adelaide Advertiser Nissen is an unlikely hero and Zable recreates his world with the utmost respect The Fighter is an autumnal book with leaves of many colours and limbs heavy with fruit It offers a rich sense of the ways in which pain can mellow and create community Australian Book Review A study of loss memory and displacement embodied in the lives of the previous generation the refugees from Nazism and the war in Europe In Zable's sensitive hands each individual story of survival belongs to all Australian The Fighter does not merely echo the slang of Melbourne's once mean working class streets or the cries and clangs of its equally mean docks but it also utterly inhabits its protagonist's voice and perspective This book is an intriguing compelling moving and lyrical hybrid between memoir and fiction just like the many lives of its subject Henry Nissen Boxer dock worker social worker son brother husband and father Jew and Australian Nissen's life story is literally stranger than fiction and more heart breaking and inspiring than any novel could ever imagine Zable unflinchingly tells Nissen's inspiring and affecting story In vivid evocative prose he celebrates not only Nissen's many unprecedented achievements in the boxing ring and his tireless selfless work with Melbourne's most desperate but also the achievements of his family friends and community Skilfully juxtaposing the intersections between boxing fighting and survival good luck and bad sanity and madness this sensitively written book is ultimately a paean of hope and dignity generosity and optimism courage and love Judges comments NSW Premier s Literary Awards The Writers Directory ,2013 Adaptation, Authorship, and Contemporary Women Filmmakers S. Cobb,2014-11-13 A lively discussion of costume dramas to women s films Shelley Cobb investigates the practice of adaptation in contemporary films made by women The figure of the woman author comes to the fore as a key site for the representation of women s agency and the authority of the woman filmmaker Women of the Resistance Marc E. Vargo,2012-09-26 Women took part in perilous resistance missions during World War II alongside a much larger number of male resistance agents This book presents the lives of eight women who at profound risk to themselves chose to challenge the Third Reich Hailing from diverse regions of the world the Middle East Asia Europe and North America the women shared privileged backgrounds of financial and social prominence as well as a profound sense of social justice As to their deeds with the Resistance they ranged from forging documents and hiding persecuted Jews to orchestrating sabotage operations and crafting a nonviolent protest movement within Nazi Germany itself As could be expected the costs were great capture and execution among them but the women s achievements did succeed in helping to win the war Theology and Vampires Madeline Potter,2025-03-15 What can vampires teach us about God How can they reshape the way we think about religion and our relationship with the divine Through a thorough analysis of the relationship between theology and vampires Theology and Vampires provides a glimpse into the versatility of the vampire as a tool for theological enquiry Contributions to the volume assess vampires and their role in articulating theological thought bringing together some of the classical vampire tales of the 19th century with contemporary iterations of the figure Considering how vampires are used to ask theological questions across media from literature through to video games this volume paints a complex and comprehensive picture of the often overlooked manner in which vampires not only reflect but also actively shape theological modes of enquiry Library Journal ,1995 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Women Engaged in War in Literature for Youth Hilary S.
