Sisters Of Grass:

The Sisters of Straygarden Place Hayley Chewins,2020-10-13 A riveting middle grade fantasy about sibling bonds enchanted houses and encroaching wildness lyrically told in eerily beautiful prose The grass grew taller than the house itself surrounding it on all sides It stuffed the keyholes and scraped against the roof It shook the walls and made paintings shiver Seven years ago the Ballastian sisters parents left them in the magical Straygarden Place a house surrounded by tall silver grass and floating trees They left behind a warning saying never to leave the house or go into the grass Wait for us the note read Sleep darkly Ever since then the house itself has taken care of Winnow Mayhap and Pavonine feeding them clothing them even keeping them company while the girls have waited and grown up and played a guessing game Think of an animal think of a place Think of a person think of a face Until one day when the eldest fourteen year old Winnow does the unthinkable and goes outside into the grass and everything twelve year old Mayhap thought she knew about her home her family and even herself starts to unravel With luscious vivid prose poet and author Hayley Chewins transports readers to a house where beloved little dogs crawl into their owners minds to sleep sick girls turn silver and anything can be stolen even laughter and silence
