the similarities and the significant differences between the situations in Argentina and Chile As attitudes toward immigration became increasingly nationalistic the European was no longer pictured as a thrifty industrious farmer or as an intellectual of superior taste and learning Instead the newcomer commonly was regarded as a subversive element out to destroy traditional creole social and cultural values Cultural phenomena as diverse as the emergence of the tango and the supposed corruption of the Spanish language were attributed to the demoralizing effects of immigration Drawing his material primarily from writers of the pre World War I period Solberg documents the rise of certain forms of nationalism in Argentina and Chile by examining the contemporary press journals literature and drama The conclusions that emerge from this study also have obvious application to the situation in other countries struggling with the problems of assimilating minority groups

Renovating Russia Daniel Beer,2018-07-05 Renovating Russia is a richly comparative investigation of late Imperial and early Soviet medico scientific theories of moral and social disorder Daniel Beer argues that in the late Imperial years liberal psychiatrists psychologists and criminologists grappled with an intractable dilemma They sought to renovate Russia to forge a modern enlightened society governed by the rule of law but they feared the backwardness irrationality and violent potential of the Russian masses Situating their studies of degeneration crime mental illness and crowd psychology in a pan European context Beer shows how liberals fears of societal catastrophe were only heightened by the effects of industrial modernization and the rise of mass politics In the wake of the orgy of violence that swept the Empire in the 1905 Revolution these intellectual elites increasingly put their faith in coercive programs of scientific social engineering Their theories survived liberalism s political defeat in 1917 and meshed with the Bolsheviks radical project for social transformation They came to sanction the application of violent transformative measures against entire classes culminating in the waves of state repression that accompanied forced industrialization and collectivization Renovating Russia thus offers a powerful revisionist challenge to established views of the fate of liberalism in the Russian Revolution
