The Bright And Glowing Place:

Monthly Weather Review ,1921      Laying the Ghost Caít Oliver,2013-02-22 A husband's obsession with historic reenactments threatens to tear his small family apart when they purchase an old house that may be haunted. A jealous wife and a young son with second sight complicate matters as the ghost of a young soldier, a survivor of the Battle of Culloden, Scotland's last stand against the English, inhabits their life. His insistence that a bloodied relic in their possession be returned to the soil of Scotland wreaks havoc upon their world. An unexpected brush with death, the exposure of a beloved leader as a fraud, and a view into the reality of history puts things into a rightful perspective.

The Broadview Anthology of British Literature Volume 6A: The Twentieth Century and Beyond: From 1900 to Mid Century Joseph Black, Leonard Conolly, Kate Flint, Isobel Grundy, Don LePan, Roy Liuzza, Jerome J. McGann, Anne Lake Prescott, Barry V. Qualls, Claire Waters, 2008-05-22 In all six of its volumes, The Broadview Anthology of British Literature presents British literature in a truly distinctive light. Fully grounded in sound literary and historical scholarship, the anthology takes a fresh approach to many canonical authors and includes a wide selection of work by lesser-known writers. The anthology also provides wide-ranging coverage of the worldwide connections of British literature and it pays attention throughout to issues of race, gender, class, and sexual orientation. It includes comprehensive introductions to each period, providing in each case an overview of the historical and cultural as well as the literary background. It features accessible and engaging headnotes for all authors, extensive explanatory annotations throughout, and an unparalleled number of illustrations and contextual materials offering additional perspectives both on individual texts and on larger social and cultural developments. Innovative, authoritative, and comprehensive, The Broadview Anthology of British Literature embodies a consistently fresh approach to the study of literature and literary history. The full Broadview Anthology of British Literature comprises six bound volumes together with an extensive website component; the latter has been edited, annotated, and designed according to the same high standards as the bound book component of the anthology and is accessible through the broadviewpress.com website by using the passcode obtained with the purchase of one or more of the bound volumes. Highlights of Volume 6, The Twentieth Century and Beyond, include Joseph Conrad's The Secret Sharer, An Outpost of Progress, an essay on the Titanic, and a substantial range of background materials, including documents on the exploitation of central Africa that set An Outpost of Progress in vivid context, and a large selection of late twentieth and early twenty-first century writers such as Ian McEwan, Kazuo Ishiguro, and Zadie Smith. For the convenience of those whose focus does not extend to the full period covered in the final volume of The Broadview Anthology of British Literature, Volume 6, The Twentieth Century and Beyond, that volume is now available either in its original one-volume format or in this alternative two-volume format with Volume 6a, The Early Twentieth Century, extending to the end of WWII, and Volume 6b, The Late Twentieth Century and Beyond, covering from WWII into the present century.

mesophotic twilight the ocean's dim frontier where sunlight fades and life glows in neon whispers Mesophotic Marvels invites curious minds to a guided tour of a realm that balances mystery with measurable science revealing how creatures adapt, communicate and survive in a light-limited world. This immersive eBook unpacks the science of dim seas with clarity and wonder. Discover how light fades with depth and which colors still survive in the blue-green veil. Meet the dazzling diversity that thrives here from corals and their symbionts to the lanternfish and the glow-bearing invertebrates that light up the night. Learn how bioluminescence and fluorescence function and how signals, color, pattern and timing become the language of life in the dark. See how visual systems evolve to snatch every photon and how camouflage lures and counter-illumination shape the daily drama of predator and prey. Follow the coral connection as light management and fluorescent cues influence growth, communication and camouflage. Peek into microhabitats where glow emerges from crevices, overhangs and detritus-rich pockets that hum with activity. Explore the tools scientists use to study this realm from submersibles and ROVs to low-light imaging and field experiments alongside the field notes that turn observations into insight. The story stretches beyond biology to the biogeography of glow and the far-reaching impacts of climate change on light dynamics and life in twilight. Designed for ocean enthusiasts, students, divers of curiosity and anyone drawn to the delicate artistry of life under dim light, this book blends science with vivid storytelling and practical guidance for observing the twilight realm. Welcome to Mesophotic Marvels, your invitation to wonder, exploration and stewardship in the dimly lit corners of our blue planet. Buy now and join the discovery.

Life Storying in Oral History Jarmila Mildorf, 2023-06-06 This book proposes the concept of fictional contamination to capture the fact that fictionalization and literary complexity can be found across different kinds of narrative. Exploring conversational storytelling in oral history and other interviews from socionarratological perspectives, the book systematically discusses key narrative features such as story templates, dialogue, double deixis, focalization or perspective taking and mind representation as well as special narrative forms including second person narration and narratives of vicarious experience. These features and forms attest to storytellers' linguistic creativity and serve the function of involving listeners by making stories more interesting. Shared by fictional and conversational narratives at a basic level, they can bring conversational stories closer to fiction and potentially compromise their credibility if used extensively. Detailed analyses of broad-ranging examples are undertaken against a rich narrative-theoretical background drawn from the fields of narratology, linguistics, oral history, life storytelling, psychology and philosophy. The book is of interest to scholars and students working in these fields and anyone fascinated by the richness of conversational storytelling.
