The Buddhist Revival In China:

The Buddhist Revival in China Holmes Welch, 1968 Building the Buddhist Revival Gregory Adam Scott, 2020 Between 1850 and 1966 tens of thousands of Buddhist sacred sites in China were destroyed victims of targeted destruction accidental damage or simply neglect During the same period however many of these sites were reconstructed a process that involved both rebuilding material structures and reviving religious communities Gregory Adam Scott argues that over the course of this period monastery reconstruction in China changed drastically The power to determine whether and how a monastery would be reconstructed and the types of activities that would be reinstated or newly introduced began to shift from religious leaders and communities to state agencies that had a radically different set of motivations and values Building the Buddhist Revival explores the history of Chinese Buddhist monastery reconstruction from the end of the Imperial period through the first seventeen years of the People's Republic The Buddhist Revival in China Holmes Welch, 1968 Tibetan Buddhists in the Making of Modern China Gray Tuttle, 2005-04-26 Over the past century and with varying degrees of success China has tried to integrate Tibet into the modern Chinese nation state In this groundbreaking work Gray Tuttle reveals the surprising role Buddhism and Buddhist leaders played in the development of the modern Chinese state and in fostering relations between Tibet and China from the Republican period 1912-1949 to the early years of Communist rule Beyond exploring interactions between Buddhists and politicians in Tibet and China Tuttle offers new insights on the impact of modern ideas of nationalism race and religion in East Asia After the fall of the Qing dynasty in 1911 the Chinese Nationalists without the traditional religious authority of the Manchu Emperor promoted nationalism and racial unity in an effort to win support among Tibetans Once this failed Chinese politicians appealed to a shared Buddhist heritage This shift in policy reflected the late nineteenth century academic notion of Buddhism as a unified world religion rather than a set of competing and diverse Asian religious practices While Chinese politicians hoped to gain Tibetan loyalty through religion the promotion of a shared Buddhist heritage allowed Chinese Buddhists and Tibetan political and religious leaders to pursue their goals During the 1930s and 1940s Tibetan Buddhist ideas and teachers enjoyed tremendous popularity within a broad spectrum of Chinese society and especially among marginalized Chinese Buddhists Even when relationships between the elite leadership between the two nations broke down religious and cultural connections remained strong After the Communists seized control they continued to exploit this link when exerting control over Tibet by force in the 1950s And despite being an avowedly atheist regime with the exception of the Cultural Revolution the Chinese communist government has continued to recognize and support many elements of Tibetan religious if not political culture Tuttle's study explores the role of Buddhism in the formation of modern China and its relationship to Tibet through the lives of Tibetan and Chinese Buddhists and politicians and by drawing on previously unexamined archival and governmental materials as well as personal memoirs of Chinese politicians and Buddhist monks and ephemera from religious ceremonies The Buddhist Revival in China Holmes Hinckley

WELCH,1968 Toward a Modern Chinese Buddhism Don Alvin Pittman,2001-01-01 The Venerable Master Taixu 1890 1947 is the most important and controversial Chinese Buddhist reformer of the 20th century This work focuses on his teachings and provides an interpretation of Taixu s aims and the diverse controversies that surrounded him The Pilgrimage of Buddhism and a Buddhist Pilgrimage James Bissett Pratt,1928 Metamorphosis of Buddhism in China's New Era David L. Wank,Ji Zhe,Yoshiko Ashiwa,2025-07-10 The metamorphosis of Buddhism synchronizing with alterations in political ideology rapid economic growth and evolving societal demands in China s new era is the focus of this book It traces the metamorphosis to 2002 when the Communist Party of China declared upholding traditional Chinese culture including Buddhism to be essential to its leadership The chapters offer rich case studies of updated authentic Buddhist teachings by clerics and other innovations in temples and nunneries new lay communities and their practices and the emergence of Buddhist cultural sites ranging from scenic areas to mega expos The comprehensive view of Buddhism in China illustrates how Buddhism is going beyond state imposed boundaries of religious space With a primary focus on Mahayana Buddhism practiced among Han Chinese it also considers interactions with Theravada and Tibetan Buddhism as well as Confucianism Daoism and folk beliefs The eleven contributing scholars experts in anthropology history philosophy religious studies and sociology draw on extensive fieldwork to provide transdisciplinary analyses of the metamorphosis raising key questions about the dynamics of religious space The Future of China's Past Albert Welter,2023-01-01 The Future of China s Past examines how China s traditional culture is being reinvented and manipulated for political purposes Like no time before in its recent history and certainly at no time in the history of the People s Republic China is being shaped in terms of its past but which past Confucianism Legalism Daoism Buddhism or combination of pasts is being held up as the model Given its growing economic political and cultural significance it is incumbent upon us to take China s rise seriously yet perspectives involving modern and contemporary geopolitical and intrastate dynamics are insufficient on their own for understanding China s rise and the same holds true for economic analyses however pertinent Instead this book looks at current engagements with models of China s past introducing the four traditional lenses of Chinese thought and reflecting on their potential relevance for China s and the world s future The Buddhist Annual of Ceylon ,1923
