The Burroughs File:

The Burroughs File William S. Burroughs, 1984-02-01 Trenchant writings by that sardonic hombre invisible William Seward Burroughs perpetrator of Naked Lunch and other shockers These malefic and beatific mordant and hilarious straight face reports on life are mostly from scatter shot City Lights Books Ralph T. Cook, Lori A. Cook, 1992 Since 1955 City Lights Bookshop in San Francisco has published over 230 titles and its 1 500 authors include Jack Kerouac James Joyce Ernest Hemingway Hilda Doolittle Allen Ginsberg Goethe Walt Whitman Gregory Corso and Karl Marx Provides complete information on all City Lights publications from 1955 through 1990 A Pathology of Computer Viruses David Ferbrache, 2012-12-06 The 1980 s saw the advent of widespread and potentially damaging computer virus infection of both personal computer and mainframe systems The computer security field has been comparatively slow to react to this emerging situation It is only over the last two years that a significant body of knowledge on the operation likely evolution and prevention of computer viruses has developed A Pathology of Computer Viruses gives a detailed overview of the history of the computer virus and an in depth technical review of the principles of computer virus and worm operation under DOS Mac UNIX and DEC operating systems David Ferbrache considers the possible extension of the threat to the mainframe systems environment and suggests how the threat can be effectively combatted using an antiviral management plan The author addresses the latest developments in stealth virus operations specifically the trend for virus authors to adopt extensive camouflage and concealment techniques which allow viruses to evade both existing anti viral software and to avoid detection by direct observation of machine behaviour A Pathology of Computer Viruses addresses a distinct need that of the computer specialist and professional who needs a source reference work detailing all aspects of the computer virus threat Digital Computer Newsletter, 1961 Authors and Art Movements of the Twentieth Century Declan Lloyd, 2022-12-30 This book explores the great influence of twentieth century artists and art movements on many major writers of the twentieth century It focuses in particular on four seminal writers who were strongly influenced by very different movements they are Gertrude Stein and Cubism William S Burroughs and Dada J G Ballard and Surrealism and Douglas Coupland and Pop Art For these authors the presence and influence of these art movements is not limited to a small cluster of texts but can be felt much more expansively across their work infiltrating all manner of multifarious and complex dimensions These authors are all keen to explore new methods of shifting the signature styles and forms of visual art into the literary world Alongside these more overt methods of artistic transposition the authors also often demonstrate a deep philosophical affinity with their chosen movements This book uproots and examines these kinds of artistic engagements and also explores the authors own personal connections with the world of art For these are all authors not only interested in visual art but also intimately connected to the art world Indeed some went on to become renowned artists in their own right while others were closely associated with major historical art figures Above all however they are unified by a kindred interest in exploring how the methods and philosophies of art can be transposed into and even challenge the constraints of traditional forms of literature Recalling Chogyam Trungpa Fabrice Midal, 2005-12-13 In wide ranging essays and interviews contributors from the fields of Buddhist practice and scholarship philosophy the arts and literature examine the work of a modern genius the Tibetan Buddhist meditation master Ch gyam Trungpa Rinpoche 1939 1987 A pioneer in introducing Buddhism to the West Trungpa Rinpoche had a distinct knack for breaking down the cultural historical and ideological barriers that make any such transmission so difficult today His skill at communicating in a living language to Western students while remaining faithful to the traditional origins of Buddhism was paired with an understanding of the modern world of unusual relevance As a result his activities in a wide range of areas including psychology education theater poetry visual arts translation publishing interreligious dialogue the creation of a path of spiritual warriorship and the founding of the first Buddhist university in North America offer penetrating insights into the meaning of Buddhism for our world and our culture This anthology is a testimony to the continuing influence of his unique qualities and work as a revitalizing force in spheres both spiritual and secular Naked Lens Jack Sargeant, 2011-04-25 Celebrating the celluloid expression of the Beat spirit arguably the most sustained legacy in U S counterculture Naked Lens is a comprehensive study of the most significant interfaces between the Beat writers Beat culture and cinema Naked Can't Find My Way Home Martin Torgoff, 2004-05-13 Can t Find My Way Home is a history of illicit drug use in America in the second half of the twentieth century and a personal journey through the drug experience It s the remarkable story of how America got high the epic tale of how the American Century transformed into the Great Stoned Age Martin Torgoff begins with the avant garde worlds of bebop jazz and the emerging Beat writers who embraced the consciousness altering properties of marijuana and other underground drugs These musicians and writers midwived the age of marijuana in the 1960s even as Timothy Leary and Richard Alpert later Ram Dass discovered the power of LSD ushering in the psychedelic era While President John Kennedy proclaimed a New Frontier and NASA journeyed to the moon millions of young Americans began discovering their own new frontiers on a voyage to inner space What had been the province of a fringe avant garde only a decade earlier became a mass movement that affected and altered mainstream America And so America sped through the century dropping acid and eating magic mushrooms at home shooting heroin and ingesting amphetamines in Vietnam snorting cocaine in the disco era smoking crack cocaine in the devastated inner cities of the 1980s discovering MDMA Ecstasy in the rave culture of the 1990s Can t Find My Way Home tells this extraordinary story by weaving together first person accounts and historical background into a narrative vast in scope yet rich in intimate detail Among those who describe their experiments with consciousness are Allen Ginsberg Timothy Leary Robert Stone Wavy Gravy Grace Slick Oliver Stone Peter Coyote David Crosby and many others from Haight Ashbury to Studio 54 to housing projects and rave warehouses But Can t Find My Way Home does not neglect the recovery movement the war on drugs and the ongoing debate over drug policy And even as Martin Torgoff tells the story of his own addiction and recovery he neither romanticizes nor demonizes drugs If he finds them less dangerous than the moral crusaders say they are he also finds them less benign than advocates insist Illegal drugs changed the cultural landscape of America and they continue to shape our country with enormous consequences This ambitious fascinating book is the story of how that happened Seeing the Beat Generation Raj Chandarlapaty, 2019-05-20 Beat generation writers dismantled mainstream America They wrote under the influence of psychedelic drugs they crossed and navigated multicultural boundaries and questioned the American dream and they explored homosexuality feminism and hyper masculinity redefining America's marital and familial codes Teaching such a history can be daunting but film adaptations of Beat literature have proven to engage students This book looks closely at the film adaptations of works by such authors as Jack Kerouac Neal Cassady Allen Ginsberg William S Burroughs Gary Snyder Carolyn Cassady Amiri Baraka and Lawrence Ferlinghetti as they relate to American history and literary studies
