The Education of People with Profound and Multiple Handicaps Judy Sebba, 1988 Designed as a basis for in service courses for staff working with people who have profound and multiple handicaps Topics covered include assessment curriculum teaching methods microelectronics problem behaviour and physiotherapy Making Leisure Provision for People with Profound Learning and Multiple Disabilities James Hogg, J. Cavet, 2013-11-11

A Sensory Curriculum for Very Special People Flo Longhorn, 2011-09-12 This uniquely valuable book arose from the author's work with profoundly disabled children in a special needs school The sensory impairment of the children meant that they were unable to learn from traditional teaching methods as they were unaware of the world around them Our very first awareness of our surroundings and ourselves come through our senses of smell touch taste sight hearing and movement and without them we are isolated To benefit from the normal school curriculum children with sensory impairment must learn to develop each of their senses individually and in combination a process the non handicapped child goes through spontaneously and unconsciously This book outlines a curriculum for each of the senses in turn using stimuli that can be varied to suit the age of the child or young person Demonstrating how these can be combined to create a multisensory experience and how this newly developed awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum This book was developed from the author's work with profoundly disabled children their sensory impairment meant that traditional teaching was unsuccessful as they were unaware of the world around them Flo Longhorn sets out a curriculum for developing each sense both individually and in combination using stimuli that can be varied according to the age of the child This book shows how these techniques can be amalgamated to create multisensory experiences and how this new awareness can be integrated into the rest of the school curriculum Designed for teachers and parents of children with profound multiple disabilities combined with sensory and physical impairment this has become a classic work

Enabling Access Barry Carpenter, Chris Stevens, Keith Bovair, Rob Ashdown, 2014-04-08 First Published in 1997 In special education we are at last in a good position to offer pupils a broad and balanced curriculum which is relevant to their needs and which is based on the same range of provision enjoyed by all pupils Such a curriculum can only be planned as a cohesive whole compartmentalizing aspects of the whole curriculum risks seeing one part as having more merit or worth than another The whole curriculum in all schools will vary depending on local needs and opportunities In special education it is important that we embrace that whole curriculum using its diversity and opportunity to plan for breadth balance and relevance This book makes a significant contribution to the developments in planning for access to the whole curriculum

A Framework for Learning Caroline Allen, 2013-10-23 This book offers carers practitioners and managers a tried and tested structure for enabling adults with a range of complex needs to develop their individual skills and experience It also provides a flexible framework which is suitable for specialist colleges and training centers for people with learning difficulties

Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Caring Persons Guide To Handling The Severely Multiply Handicapped : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. The Caring Persons Guide To Handling The Severely Multiply Handicapped : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. The Caring Persons Guide To Handling The Severely Multiply Handicapped : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
