Snow Covered Wagons Julia Cooley Altrocchi, 1936 Approaches to the Anglo and American Female Epic, 1621-1982 Bernard Schweizer, 2019-02-08 Epic has long been regarded as the exclusive domain of the male literary genius and as an incarnation of patriarchal values This provocative collection of essays challenges such a hegemonic stereotype by demonstrating the ways in which women writers have successfully adapted the masculine epic tradition to suit their own aesthetic needs and to express their own heroic literary social and historical visions Bringing the female epic out of the shadows the contributors rethink generic boundaries to illuminate this heretofore hidden literary practice The essays range from Mary Tighe to Rebecca West from Elizabeth Barrett Browning to Gwendolyn Brooks and from Frances Burney to Virginia Woolf Bernard Schweizer's introduction titled Muses with Pens connects the trajectory of ideas and influences in the individual essays to demonstrate how each participates in reclaiming for women writers a place in the development of a female epic tradition The volume will be an invaluable resource for scholars working on issues related to genre canon formation and the evolution of female literary authority The Last Love Song Tracy Daugherty, 2015-08-25 In The Last Love Song Tracy Daugherty the critically acclaimed author of Hiding Man a New Yorker and New York Times Notable book and Just One Catch and subject of the hit documentary The Center Will Not Hold on Netflix delves deep into the life of distinguished American author and journalist Joan Didion in this the first printed biography published about her life Joan Didion lived a life in the public and private eye with her late husband writer John Gregory Dunne whom she met while the two were working in New York City when Didion was at Vogue and Dunne was writing for Time They became wildly successful writing partners when they moved to Los Angeles and co wrote screenplays and adaptations together Didion is well known for her literary journalistic style in both fiction and non fiction Some of her most notable work includes Slouching Towards Bethlehem Run River and The Year of Magical Thinking a National Book Award winner and shortlisted for the Pulitzer Prize It dealt with the grief surrounding Didion after the loss of her husband and daughter Daugherty takes readers on a journey back through time following a young Didion in Sacramento through to her adult life as a writer interviewing those who know and knew her personally while maintaining a respectful distance from the reclusive literary great The Last Love Song reads like fiction lifelong fans and readers learning about Didion for the first time will be enthralled with this impressive tribute The Golden Wheel Paul Hemenway Altrocchi, MD, 2007-07-09 The Golden Wheel is Julia Cooley Altrocchi's fourth poetry anthology upon which she was working when she died at age 79 The short poems chosen exemplify the broad spectrum of Julia's aesthetic interests love nature optimism philosophic reflection the grandeur of history and travel modern youth and the meaning of Life The editors a son and a granddaughter have enriched this anthology with a sampling of her youthful poetry as well as two powerful long narrative poems in their entirety Black Boat which describes one of World War II's least known American racial injustices and Chicago Epic City for which she won at age 75 first prize in

Poet Lore's National Narrative Poem Contest This collection of poetry illuminates the evolution and full sweep of Julia Cooley Altrocchi's literary creativity and artistry Glass Mountain Julia Cooley Altrocchi, 2021-01-20 Astronomers all over the world study the universe with powerful telescopes situated on cold mountain summits where skies are clear What is it like to live in such a faraway community for extended periods of time What are the consequences of romance extra marital love unwanted pregnancy attempted murder and a dangerous forest fire for such a group Are the expected personal and social effects exaggerated or muted What is the impact of a major external event such as the onset of a world war Noted poet and author Julia Cooley Altrocchi portrays what life was like in a pre television era for such an isolated cluster of fewer than forty people academic stargazers their families and support staff during the months immediately before and after the bombing of Pearl Harbor on December 7 1941 It becomes clear that walls and houses on such an isolated mountain top are made of glass Everybody knows everything Secrets cannot be kept Life's emotions and theatrics are intensified more vivid more vitally felt The intriguing cast of characters is indeed living on a Glass Mountain in this dramatically gripping linguistically captivating and thoroughly entertaining historical novel Best of Covered Wagon Women Kenneth L. Holmes, 2014-10-20 The diaries and letters of women on the overland trails in the mid to late nineteenth century are treasured documents These eleven selections drawn from the multivolume Covered Wagon Women series present the best first person trail accounts penned by women in their teens who traveled west between 1846 and 1898 Ranging in age from eleven to nineteen unmarried and without children of their own these diarists had experiences different from those of older women who carried heavier responsibilities with them on the trail These letters and diaries reflect both the unique perspective of youthful optimism and the experiences common among all female emigrants The young women write of friendship and family trail hardships and explorations such as visits to Indian gravesites Some like Sallie Hester even write of enjoying the company of men and many speculate about marriage prospects Domestic roles did not define the girls trail experience only the four oldest in this collection recorded helping with chores As they journey through Indian lands these writers show that even their youth did not prevent them from holding notions of white racial superiority Two of the selections are newly published having appeared only in limited distribution collector's editions of the original series For all readers captivated by the first Best of Covered Wagon Women collection this new volume's focus on youthful travelers adds a fresh perspective to life on the trail
