So Call It a Mitzvah Walter Weiner, 1978-04-01      Getting Old Is Murder Rita Lakin, 2005-10-25 She is not Miss Marple Her friends are no Charlie's Angels Nevertheless 75 year old Gladys Gold and her gang of eccentric Fort Lauderdale retirees are out about and hunting down a killer one who is silently stalking them Selma Beller was the first to go but Gladys and her neighbors never suspected murder until another of their friends died in an eerily similar way Now a handsome young detective won't listen to them Hy Binder won't stop telling them dirty jokes and crazy old Greta Kronk is doing everything humanly possible to make herself into a suspect But amid the endless rounds of poolside kibitzing early bird specials bittersweet memories and interminable grocery shopping trips Gladys and her gals are about to discover how the murders are being committed And when it comes to catching this culprit time really is running out      Ladies of the Lounges Christine Strevinsky, 2002-10-01 Ladies of the Lounges is set in the early 1970s a time when there indeed was a department store named Holmes in New Orleans which observed the amenities of serving coffee to its early customers It is the story of one day in the lives of six elderly women whose paths cross simply because all of them happen to be the aficionados of this particular store Two of them are immigrants the rest native Southerners New Orleanians In the course of that one day their lives change dramatically in ways none of them could have foreseen      And I Don't Want to Live This Life Deborah Spungen, 2011-10-12 Honest and moving Her painful tale is engrossing Washington Post Book World For most of us it was just another horrible headline But for Deborah Spungen the mother of Nancy who was stabbed to death at the Chelsea Hotel it was both a relief and a tragedy Here is the incredible story of an infant who never stopped screaming a toddler who attacked people a teenager addicted to drugs violence and easy sex a daughter completely out of control who almost destroyed her parents marriage and the happiness of the rest of her family      Eighteen Words to Sustain a Life David Patterson, 2023-06-26 In the Jewish tradition going back to Jacob many fathers have written down whatever wisdom they might have attained in their lives in order to pass along that wisdom to their heirs It is called an ethical will Written as a testimony and a testament in an epistolary format this book is a compendium of the wisdom of a father who has spent a lifetime studying the teachings of the Jewish tradition as well as literary and philosophical traditions of the West The insights taken from those traditions which explore the life of the soul are intended for anyone who has a soul The book is organized around eighteen words that form the foundations of human life The number eighteen is taken from the Hebrew word for life chai which has a numerical value of eighteen Among the words at the heart of these reflections are faith goodness responsibility meaning gratitude prayer love and others      The Reform Advocate, 1915      A Parent's Guide to Teaching Children Mitzvot Shmuel Singer, 1991 As a result parents often cannot obtain adequate information from a single unified source Rabbi Singer has provided a concise well organized overview that includes children with special needs      The Orchard of Pomegranates - Pardes Rimonim Rabbi Moshe Cordovero (Ramak), 2025-09-11 Pardes Rimonim The Orchard of Pomegranates is the magnum opus of Rabbi Moshe Cordovero Ramak 1522 1570 written in Safed in the mid 16th century It is the first systematic encyclopedia of Kabbalah in which ancient mystical teachings were gathered and organized into a coherent system The title of the book is symbolic the pomegranate with its hundreds of seeds represents the multitude of mysteries and meanings contained within the Torah and the cosmos Like a garden filled with diverse fruits Kabbalah is presented in the book as a holistic harmonious teaching Across 32 gates Ramak guides the reader through key areas of mystical thought from the doctrine of the One God and the ten Sefirot to the structure of spiritual worlds Angels and Demons the nature of the Soul the meaning of commandments and the mystery of future redemption This book blends philosophical clarity with poetic inspiration It opens a path not only to understanding Kabbalah but also to experiencing it as a living reality where each step of the seeker brings them closer to the Infinite There are books written in ink and there are books written in light Pardes Rimmonim is not merely the treatise of a sage it is a garden into which one enters with a bare heart There branches intertwine like the paths of the Sefirot there pomegranates hang heavy with fruit each seed holding a secret each seed a part of the whole Rabbi Moshe Cordovero the great Ramak opened the gates of this garden in Safed where the air was filled with hymns and revelations and gathered all the voices of Kabbalah so that in one place they might sing a symphony of infinity Here we learn that God is One that His light shines through ten vessels that the human soul is bound to the roots of creation and that every commandment every prayer is a thread mending the fabric of the world But this garden is not only a solace it is also a challenge For the deeper we wander its paths the more we realize behind the first mystery lies a second behind the second a third and so on endlessly until we dissolve into Ein Sof Whoever enters this garden with an open heart will hear the leaves whisper eternal names and perhaps find there their own fruit sweet and radiant like a spark of the soul
