Clouds Nate Allen, 2012-02-22 What Grant Smith loses at seven is much more than his father He loses his faith his happiness his identity The years turn him into a man without reason At eighteen he is just as lost as when he was a child All he wants is happiness One day it is found in a cemetery in the form of a girl named Chelsea She is damaged much like him They fall in love Grant is a man haunted by things he has always avoided Despite a new sense of happiness he cant escape the darkness that was born within him It manifests in the form of a father now transformed by his own demons In a dream he frenetically claims happiness But the father with a monster attached mocks him for it The truth he doesnt want to face is that he is not happy Or if he is he fears it is only temporary And it is The war that started after 9 11 branches off into others the president who promised change is reelected a once bright future has become something bleak The Draft is put back into effect On a day when two explosions paint the sky in Baghdad Grant unleashes his darkness Every choice has a consequence His is unimaginable His fathers death left him a man without reason The war leaves him a man changed for the worse He knows of his darkness He let it free And now it threatens to take away everything he loves

Greenleaf Book Group Frank has a firm grasp of the events but what struck me most was the development of his fictional characters Buy this book you will surely be as enthralled as I was Michael Noiro Battlefield Portraits com I loved the book It isn t often that I get to say that I m glad that you didn t sugarcoat the ending or other parts of the novel I think it s necessary to describe the toll of war on society Yet the love story gives the novel a lighter tone
