Social And Legal Status Of Women A Global Perspective:

The Social and Legal Status of Women Winnie Hazou, 1990-07-26 This book delves into the legal traditions that relegated women to an inferior social and legal status worldwide Winnie Hazou probes the nature of law changes in legislation and the trend of modern law toward a social engineering that effects gender equality Hazou analyzes changes in major areas of women's lives such as family employment and the acquisition of social power She presents a global perspective of women's status and discusses international law aimed at eliminating the exploitation and abuse of women The book highlights five countries exploring the cultural basis for and social attitudes toward the position of women in each country Students and scholars of women's studies will find this book a valuable resource The book concludes that both national and international law are slowly evolving into an effective tool for the elimination of discrimination against women In spite of residual traditions and beliefs across all cultures concerning gender roles there is great institutional support in governments as well as the United Nations to elevate the status of women This book combines the sociology of women and the sociology of law to give a global perspective on not only the current position of women but the changes that are occurring in their lives

Buddhism and Human Rights Wayne R. Husted, Damien Keown, Charles S. Prebish, 2012-12-06 It is difficult to think of a more urgent question for Buddhism in the late twentieth century than human rights The political ethical and philosophical questions surrounding human rights are debated vigorously in political and intellectual circles throughout the world and now in this volume Global Perspectives on Reproductive Rights and Policies Pucelj, Maja, Matusiak-Fr?cczak, Magdalena, 2024-11-29 Reproductive rights and policies seek to balance different human rights ethics and morals as well as technology At the same time they concern probably the most intimate sphere of human life Issues related to reproductive rights are the subject of intensive public debate in which not only politicians but also many nongovernmental organizations

NGOs and even religious groups take part. All of these actors present essential arguments which should be taken into account when discussing reproductive rights. Global Perspectives on Reproductive Rights and Policies comprehensively examines reproductive rights as an essential component of human rights. It offers an in-depth analysis of legal frameworks as well as the ethical implications and societal consequences associated with these rights. Covering topics such as abortion policies, legal frameworks, and women's rights, this book is an excellent resource for researchers, academicians, legal professionals, healthcare professionals, ethicists, policymakers, international organizations, and NGOs.

Global Perspectives on the Rule of Law James J. Heckman, Robert L. Nelson, Lee Cabatingan, 2013-03 Global Perspectives on the Rule of Law presents original work from a panel of leading social scientists and legal scholars on the relationship between the rule of law and economic and political development.

Gender Relations in Global Perspective Nancy Cook, 2007 Faced with an increasingly diverse student population, an expanding field of gender scholarship, and an academic emphasis on multidisciplinary social science, professors often struggle to address and integrate such a broad array of gender issues in their courses. This book addresses that challenge by increasing students' understandings of gender relations in multiple social fields across time and space. Gender Relations in Global Perspective is truly multidisciplinary. It is partially drawn from the work of sociologists, but articles written by gender scholars from the disciplines of cultural studies, history, political science, geography, and literary theory are also included. The readings examine historically persistent, cross-culturally relevant, and empirically grounded concerns such as men's position in the family and women's relationship to work, media, and the global economy, as well as the gendered problems of violence, sexuality, and reproduction, and racism. This book presents an engaging range of comparative and cross-cultural gender analyses from various world regions, including the Middle East, South Asia, South East Asia, Europe, the Americas, and Africa. As the articles are dialogically situated in this text, readers will be able to analyse gender similarities and differences around the globe and learn about the diversity of gender experiences across cultures and regions. This range of analyses demonstrates how a global perspective enriches feminist analyses. Students will quickly learn that to investigate gender dynamics adequately, attention must be paid simultaneously to the processes of racialization, class, colonialism, and imperialism, and sexuality that interweave with gender to produce complex forms of oppression.

Contractualisation of Family Law - Global Perspectives Frederik Swennen, 2015-07-06 This volume presents global and comparative perspectives on the perpetual pendular movement of family law between status and contract It contributes to the topical academic debate on family law exceptionalism by exploring the blurred lines between public law private law and family law and sheds light on the many shades of grey that exist The contributions focus on both substantive and procedural family law on parents and children and on life partners with particular attention for contractual arrangements of family formations and of conflict resolution The hypothesis underlying all contributions was the trend towards contractualisation of family law A convergent research outcome resulting from the comparison of national reports was the ambivalent position of family law in legal systems worldwide That comparison shows that whereas family law is clearly moving towards contract with regard to old family formations the contrary is true for new family formations The movement towards contract is rarely considered to be contractualisation pur sang with civil effect The movement towards status finally does not necessarily witness family law exceptionalism vis vis private law in view of the increasing State interventionism in private law relations in general In sum as the volume shows the high permeability of the demarcations between the State the family and the market impedes a categorial approach This volume is based on the general and selected national reports on the topic Contractualisation of Family Law that were presented at the XIXth International Congress of Comparative Law in Vienna in July 2014
