Race, Gender, and Citizenship in the African Diaspora Manoucheka Celeste, 2016-07-01 Winner of the National Communication Association's 2018 Diamond Anniversary Book Award With the exception of slave narratives there are few stories of black international migration in U S news and popular culture This book is interested in stratified immigrant experiences diverse black experiences and the intersection of black and immigrant identities Citizenship as it is commonly understood today in the public sphere is a legal issue yet

scholars have done much to move beyond this popular view and situate citizenship in the context of economic social and political positioning The book shows that citizenship in all of its forms is often rhetorically representationally and legally negated by blackness and considers the ways that blackness and representations of blackness impact one's ability to travel across national and social borders and become a citizen This book is a story of citizenship and the ways that race gender and class shape national belonging with Haiti Cuba and the United States as the primary sites of examination A Handbook of Comparative Social Policy, Second Edition Patricia Kennett, 2013-01-01 This extensively revised edition of A Handbook of Comparative Social Policy provides up to date and valuable insights on key concepts and issues such as globalization crime diversity housing child poverty gender inequality and social policy regimes To write about these topics editor Patricia Kennett has gathered an excellent team of researchers who deal with both the developing and the advanced industrial world Students of comparative social policy would benefit from engaging with this illuminating Handbook Daniel Bland Johnson Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy Canada The current context of social policy is one in which many of the old certainties of the past have been eroded The predominantly inward looking domestic preoccupation of social policy has made way for a more integrated international and outward approach to analysis which looks beyond the boundaries of the state It is in this context that this Handbook brings together the work of key commentators in the field of comparative analysis in order to provide comprehensive coverage of contemporary debates and issues in cross national social policy research Organized around five themes this thoroughly revised and updated second edition explores the contextual conceptual analytical and processual aspects of undertaking comparative social research The contributions highlight specific areas of comparative social policy including child poverty and well being patterns of housing provision and housing inequalities and social protection in East Asia as well as crime and criminology in a global context The authors of the Handbook explore continuing and emerging themes as well as issues which are of particular relevance to understanding the contemporary social world International in scope this authoritative Handbook presents original cutting edge research from leading specialists and will become an indispensable source of reference for anyone interested in comparative and international social research It will also prove a valuable study aid for undergraduate and postgraduate students from a range of disciplines including social policy sociology politics urban studies and public policy

Citizenship: Feminist Perspectives Ruth Lister, 2017-03-14 The second edition of this classic text substantially revises and extends the original so as to take account of theoretical and policy developments and to enhance its international scope Drawing on a range of disciplines and literatures the book provides an unusually broad account of citizenship It recasts traditional thinking about the concept so as to pinpoint important theoretical issues and their political and policy implications for women in their diversity Themes of inclusion and exclusion at national and international level rights and participation inequality and difference are thus all brought to the fore in the development of a woman friendly gender inclusive theory and praxis of citizenship

The Transformation of Citizenship, Volume 1

Juergen Mackert,Bryan S. Turner,2017-03-16 The Transformation of Citizenship addresses the basic question of how we can make sense of citizenship in the twenty first century These volumes make a strong plea for a reorientation of the sociology of citizenship and address serious threats of an ongoing erosion of citizenship rights Arguing from different scientific perspectives rather than offering new conceptions of citizenship as supposedly more adequate models of rights membership and belonging they deal with both the ways citizenship is transformed and the ways it operates in the face of fundamentally transformed conditions This volume Political Economy discusses manifold consequences of a decades long enforcement of neo liberalism for the rights of citizens As neo liberalism not only means a new form of economic system it has to be conceived of as an entirely new form of global regional and national governance that radically transforms economic political and social relations in society Its consequences for citizenship as a social institution are no less than dramatic Against the background of both manifest and ideological processes the book looks at if citizenship has lost the basis it has rested upon for decades or if the institution itself is in a process of being fundamentally transformed and restructured thereby changing its meaning and the significance of citizens rights This book will appeal to academics working in the field of political theory political sociology and European studies Homelessness Patricia Kennett, Alex Marsh, 1999-09-15 Analysis that links the phenomenon of homelessness to wider debates about the changing social and economic environment remains relatively underdeveloped. Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay, Ann Harrington, 2023-09-12 This book addresses important issues of ageing and spirituality and reflects on the impact of culture on both constructs. The papers are contemporary in that they include excerpts of cultural impact on spirituality from New Zealand, Singapore, India, United Kingdom, Australia and the United States. This book marks almost 20 years of international conferences on ageing and spirituality that commenced in January 2000. It opens the conversation to all who were part of this journey of ageing, including older people, practitioners in ageing and aged care, researchers and those who reflect on the process of growing older. Chapters feature diverse perspectives highlighting the need for inclusivity in conversations that surround ageing and recognize how development of cultures is influenced by the society where they emerge and by minority groups within larger society. Chapters also note the occurrence of subcultures of ageing and aged care. The conference was held shortly before the onset of the COVID 19 pandemic with the chapters being written often during times of lockdown. Their content reflects the importance of spirituality in times of isolation and can show ways of reaching out to vulnerable older people of various faiths and cultures whatever their situations. Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality will be a key resource for academics, researchers and advanced students of Theology, Divinity and Religious Studies, Gerontology, Sociology, Psychology, Mental Health and Nursing. The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Religion, Spirituality, Aging.
