Philosophy Paschall Mungwini,2017-12-29 Some of the most provocative questions confronting philosophers in Africa are grounded in the historical memory of conquest and the peripheralisation the continent Mungwini offers a critical reconstruction of indigenous Shona philosophy as an aspect of the African intellectual heritage held hostage by colonial modernity In this comprehensive work he lays bare the thoughts of the Shona who are credited with the founding of the ancient Great Zimbabwe civilisation Retracing the epistemic thread in the fabric of Shona culture and philosophy he explores the assumptions that inform their thinking The exchange of such knowledge is fundamental to the future of humanity devoted to the major substantive themes in historical sociology ranging from state formation nationalism social movements classes patriarchy architecture religion and moral regulation to problems of periodization and East West divisions Each part includes an introduction that summarizes and contextualizes chapters A general introduction to the volume outlines the current situation of historical sociology after the cultural turn in the social sciences It argues that historical sociology is deeply divided between explanatory sociological approaches and more empirical and interpretative historical approaches Systematic and informative the book offers readers the most complete and authoritative guide to historical sociology
