Beyond Colorblind Sarah Shin, 2017-11-14 While society may try to be colorblind we can't ignore that God created us with our ethnic identities and he made them for good Ethnicity and evangelism specialist Sarah Shin reveals how our broken ethnic stories can be restored and redeemed demonstrating God's power to others and bringing good news to the world Discover how your ethnic story can be transformed for compelling witness and mission

The God of Intimacy and Action Mary Albert Darling, 2019-03-05 Acclaimed evangelical speaker and writer Tony Campolo teams up with spiritual director and teacher Mary Albert Darling to reveal some gems from the liturgical Christian tradition to Protestants who may be ready for a refreshing change While steeped in their own evangelical tradition the authors are not afraid to venture back into Christian history and reclaim practices that have long been considered exclusively Catholic including Centering Prayer along with works by Ignatius Loyola and Catherine of Siena as excellent spiritual tools to help evangelicals grow in faith and love for the poor A vital theme in Campolo and Darling's work is that spirituality is not solely an individualistic practice but must lead Christians to love and help the oppressed True Christian mysticism they posit is not an either/or proposition That's because the nexus between evangelism and justice is to be found in Christian mysticism

Cultural Psychology and Christian Divers Kathryn Ecklund, 2016-08-09 This textbook applies cultural psychology and cultural competency to the challenges present in diverse Christian colleges and churches Students are challenged to implement strategies to advance their cultural competence at the individual interpersonal and organizational levels The text reviews the current literature base in the fields of multicultural psychology and cultural competence and integrates the material with Christian faith providing an enriched basis for readers to be motivated to internalize and apply the material Additionally the text utilizes recent student narratives to illustrate the material This is the only faith integrated multicultural psychology book on the market focusing on applying multicultural psychology and cultural competency to Christian communities both on university campuses and churches

Playing Favorites Rodger Woodworth, 2021-11-30 According to recent research our brains prefer the path of least resistance when it comes to engaging people who are unlike us in fact our brains tell us to perceive anyone different than us as a threat That is a nice way to say that despite our best intentions we all have our prejudices and preferences In biblical terms we show partiality toward people who resemble us we play favorites Much of our identity community and power are established by the measurement of our differences from others justifying our need to categorize people Even when we attempt to engage other races and cultures we see it as a one way bridge taking our way of life across the river to enlighten those different than us It assumes we are on the bank of the undistorted view of the world and our understanding of the other side is not important The proper response is to encourage two way traffic on the bridge not only by having dialogue with people over the bridge but more importantly listening to them Overcoming our prejudices and bridging the cultural divide is the result of living out the gospel and it is the most significant way to communicate the gospel

Experiencing Healing Prayer Rick Richardson, 2005-03-31 Rick Richardson shows that God can heal your deepest hurts wounds and areas of sin And he helps you to receive healing from God through prayer learned and practiced in community

From Burned Out to Beloved Bethany Dearborn Hiser, 2020-11-17 As a social worker jail chaplain and justice advocate Bethany Dearborn Hiser pushed herself to the brink of burnout only to discover that she needed the very soul care she was providing to others Tackling the effects of secondary trauma and burnout this is a trauma informed soul care guide for Christians working in high stress helping professions

Healing Our Broken Humanity Grace Ji-Sun Kim, Graham Hill, 2018-08-28 We live in conflicted times We want to see justice restored because Jesus calls us to be a peacemaking and reconciling people But how do we do this Grace Ji Sun Kim and Graham Hill offer ten ways to transform society from lament and repentance to relinquishing power reinforcing agency and more Embodying these practices enables us to be the new humanity in Jesus Christ

Roadmap to Reconciliation 2.0 Brenda Salter McNeil, 2020-06-16 We can see the injustice and inequality in our lives and in the world But how exactly does one reconcile Based on her extensive work with churches and organizations Rev Dr Brenda Salter McNeil has created a roadmap to show us the way This revised and expanded edition shows us how to take the next step into unity wholeness and justice

Nurturing Hope Lynne M. Baab, 2018-08-01 Trends and skills for those who offer pastoral care Christian pastoral care has changed a great deal in the past few decades in response to many factors in our rapidly changing world In part 1 of Nurturing Hope Lynne Baab discusses seven trends in pastoral care shifts in who delivers pastoral care the attitudes and commitments that undergird pastoral care and societal trends that are shaping pastoral care today She illustrates them with stories from diverse congregations where Christian caregivers are meeting those challenges in creative and exciting ways In the second half of the book Baab presents four practical doable energizing skills needed by pastoral carers in our time Focusing on skills that help carers nurture connections between everyday life and Christian faith she explores the need for carers to understand common stressors listen pray with others and nurture their personal resilience Grounded in an understanding of God as the true caregiver and healer the author offers tips for readers who are training other pastoral carers or developing their own understanding and skills Each chapter ends with discussion and reflection questions making the book helpful for groups Lynne Baab brings readers hope for their caring role and for their own spiritual journey The American Church in Black and White Gregory Emanuel Bryant, 2016-05-14 The American Church in Black and White is a book born out of the authors love for Gods church It was shaped and given form and text in the crucible of the authors experience as a pastor of several Indiana congregations congregations that attempted to create a Christian counter narrative to the tragic narrative and legacy of our nations history of slavery and racism Cautiously optimistic in tone the author posits that if the American church is going to live into Christs prayer request for His church to be one John 17 21 if the church is going to deal effectively with the fallen powers and win people to the Lord then Christians will have to face and overcome the complex and tragic history of racial antipathy in this country also the church will have to learn how to successfully navigate a spiritual and cultural minefield The author has distilled the three main cultural controversies mines that can explode implode the churches intercultural hopes down to 1 Culturally Based Worship Preferences 2 Culturally Based Views on Ministerial Authority and 3 Biblical Hermeneutics in Black and White It is the authors conviction that in spite of these areas of potential conflict God has given the church the power to become an intercultural community that is distinctive attractive and authentically Christian

Out in the Pulpit Pamela Pater-Ennis PhD, 2019-11-07 Lesbian clergy today face a multiplicity of challenging issues In Out in the Pulpit author Dr Pamela Pater Ennis utilizes the intersecting concepts found in social work and theology as an interpretive framework to dissect and discuss these issues Pater Ennis addresses the questions of the theoretical constructs of the social identity theory ecological theory and the anti oppressive theory She s compiled the data from interviews utilizing modified grounded theory and listening guide methodologies to give voice to the lesbian clergy and the challenges they faced because of their religious spiritual and sexual identities Out in the Pulpit a qualitative study offers new insights into the current debate about the inclusion or exclusion of lesbian clergy in four Protestant mainline denominations The Reformed Church in America the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America the Presbyterian Church in the United States and the United Church of Christ While lesbian clergy remain marginalized in each of these denominations this study reveals the positive contributions made to the church and society by those who remain active in their denominations and utilize their abilities to benefit their congregations It is an encouraging book of redemption for lesbians and their allies who have struggled to find their place in the church The New Evangelical Social Engagement Brian Steensland, Philip Goff, 2014 Evangelicals are increasingly turning their attention to such issues as the environment international human rights economic development racial reconciliation and urban renewal The New Evangelical Social Engagement maps this new religious terrain and spells

out its significance
