Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart James A. Wallace, 2002 Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart is about words most particularly it is a book about the Word the living Word of God found in the Scriptures and embodied once and for all in the person of Jesus the Word made flesh In Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart Fr James Wallace offers a nuanced consideration of the homily as nourishment He focuses on three common liturgical contexts feasts of the Lord feasts of Mary and the saints and the sacramental rites He relates the preaching that occurs within each area to one of the heart's basic hungers for wholeness the great feasts of the Lord for guidance feasts of Mary and the saints and for meaning various rites He also addresses the spirituality of the preacher as it is worked out in the process of preparation For preachers and students in schools of ministry who are preparing to preach Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart will serve as a useful tool to help satisfy the hunger to preach the Gospel It includes homilies that provide excellent starting points for preachers looking for ideas Chapter one considers the image of feeding God's people with the Word of God Chapter two considering the innermost hunger of the human person looks to the preaching that takes place on the great feasts of the Lord and how such preaching can nourish the hunger for wholeness Chapter three returns to the hunger for meaning already mentioned and extends to the other sacramental celebrations the homily's capacity to meet this hunger including those addressed by the various sacramental celebrations of the Church such as baptisms weddings funerals rites of reconciliation and anointing of the sick Chapters four and five present the homily as responding to the hunger to belong The final chapter considers one other hunger of the heart unique to the preacher referred to by John Paul II as a hunger to preach the gospel Pastores Dabo Vobis no 28 Chapters are Preaching's Task in a New Millennium Feeding God's People Preaching the Feasts of the Lord and the Hunger for Wholeness Preaching Within the Sacramental Rites and the Hunger for Meaning Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging I The Saints Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging II Mary and Cultivating the Preacher's Hunger To Make the Gospel Known and Loved James A Wallace CSsR PhD is professor of homiletics at Washington Theological Union His previous works include Preaching Through the Saints and The Ministry of Lectors published by The Liturgical Press He has also authored numerous articles and has given preaching conferences and workshops in the U S and abroad

The Cross at the Heart of the Church Petre Maican, 2025-09-18 Can Eastern Orthodoxy apply the term church to other Christian communities Emerging from the 2016 Pan Orthodox Council this issue sparked one of the most heated debates in contemporary Eastern Orthodoxy According to Maican grappling with this question within the current framework of Eastern Orthodox ecclesiology presents significant challenges In this unifying work he argues that neither the emphasis on the Eucharist nor the adherence to the Tradition of the Fathers is capable of accommodating legitimate Christian otherness Instead Maican proposes a cruciform ecclesiology positing the cross as not only foundational to doctrines and sacraments but also as the primary criterion for discerning the ecclesial nature of a community Through dialogue with Dumitru Staniloae Hans Urs von Balthasar and Paul Tillich this book employs a conversationalist approach to this intricate problem Ultimately Maican provides a nuanced examination of the cross in ecclesiology yielding bold propositions for recognizing the ecclesial status of other Christian communities

The Line through the Heart J. Budziszewski,2014-04-29 The suicidal proclivity of our time writes the acclaimed philosopher J Budziszewski is to deny the obvious Our hearts are riddled with desires that oppose their deepest longings because we demand to have happiness on terms that make happiness impossible Why And what can we do about it Budziszewski addresses these vital questions in his brilliantly persuasive new book The Line Through the Heart The answers can be discovered in an exploration of natural law a venture that with Budziszewski as our expert guide takes us through politics religion ethics law philosophy and more Natural law the author states plainly but provocatively is a fact about human beings as surely as we have hands and feet we have the foundational principles of good and evil woven into the fabric of our minds From this elemental fact emerges a natural law theory that unfolds as part of a careful study of the human person Thus Budziszewski shows natural law forms a common ground for humanity But this common ground is slippery While natural law is truly an observable part of human nature human beings are hell bent quite literally on ignoring it The mere mention of the obligations imposed on man by his nature will send him into a rage In this sense The Line Through the Heart explores natural law as not simply a fact and a theory but also a sign of contradiction While investigating the natural law and its implications Budziszewski boldly confronts and offers a newly integrated view of a wide range of contemporary issues including abortion evolution euthanasia capital punishment the courts and the ersatz state religion being built in the name of religious toleration Written in Budziszewski's usual crystalline style The Line Through the Heart makes clear that natural law is a matter of concern not merely to scholars it touches how each of us lives and how all of us live together His profoundly important examination of this subject helps us make sense of why habits that run against our nature have become second nature and why our world seems to be going mad
