The Maxwell Street Blues Paul Whelan Mysteries:

The Maxwell Street Blues Michael Raleigh, 2000-03-24 In The Maxwell Street Blues the third novel in Michael Raleigh's Paul Whelan series of private eye novels Whelan is hired by an elderly jazz musician to look in to the murder of his boyhood friend a dealer in Chicago's great open air flea market Maxwell Street Whelan's investigation leads him into the dealer's past and uncovers old feuds and wounds and an interracial romance The story takes Whelan into some of Chicago's oldest neighborhoods and most interesting communities and introduces him to a rich often funny cast of characters

The Maxwell Street Blues Michael Raleigh, 2015-02-15 A PI combs the seedy Chicago streets to untangle a web of old feuds that may have turned fatal This series is a small treasure Booklist Chicago private eye Paul Whelan is hired by an elderly jazz musician to find a missing street hustler named Sam Burwell As Whelan delves into Burwell's past in the world of sidewalk vendors and corner musicians he uncovers old enmities and love affairs but his search for Burwell comes up empty That is until Burwell is found murdered and Whelan is swept up into a whirlwind of old feuds dark pasts unlikely romances and a killer hiding in plain sight There is method as well as charm in the congenial manner of Mr Raleigh's detective who manages to conduct a very thorough investigation by winning over grumpy bartenders crabby waitresses and wary old men on benches He likes these people and that's good enough reason to like him Marilyn Stasio The New York Times The smells and the sounds are evocative the greasy food that Whelan thrives on the dank workingman's bars and the ever present rattle of the el overhead Raleigh presents a genuine good guy in the luckless Whelan and offers a knockout supporting cast Publishers Weekly

The Maxwell Street Blues Michael Raleigh, 1994 Hired to find Maxwell Street hustler and flea marketeer Sam Burwell Paul Whelan finds himself getting sucked a little too far into Chicago's underworld when Burwell's murdered body is found By the author of A Body in Belmont Harbor

Death in Uptown Michael Raleigh, 2015-03-15 A killer terrorizes a diverse Chicago neighborhood in this impressive first mystery Publishers Weekly Private investigator Paul Whelan's specialty is tracking down missing persons But when his good friend is found slain in an alley Whelan is steered down a path of violence as he searches for answers in a murder case His investigation is interrupted by the arrival of an attractive young woman who is on her own search for her missing kid brother But as clues lead Whelan to believe the two cases may be connected the body count rises quickly and he finds himself racing to catch a killer before he strikes again Raleigh seems to have gotten so deeply inside his hero and his seamy world that there may be nothing left for a sequel But it would be great to be wrong about that Kirkus Reviews

A Body in Belmont Harbor Michael Raleigh, 2015-02-15 Death on the Chicago waterfront pulls a PI into a twisting case An underappreciated carefully crafted series Booklist Two years ago a computer software specialist was found dead in Belmont Harbor an apparent suicide Now the body of a low rent bookie has been found very close to the same spot and the businessman's wealthy widow hires Paul Whelan to find out whether her husband really killed himself at all There are in fact connections between the two men and as Whelan tries to sort them out with some unofficial help from a friend on the force he's drawn into a world of missing accountants mysterious tough guys and dirty deals Sleek plotting Raleigh who delivered the goods in his debut novel Death in Uptown shows no signs of faltering Publishers Weekly Maxwell Street Tim Cresswell, 2019-03-22 What is the nature of place and how does one undertake to write about it To answer these questions geographer and poet Tim Cresswell looks to Chicago's iconic Maxwell Street Market area Maxwell Street was for decades a place where people from all corners of the city mingled to buy and sell goods play and listen to the blues and encounter new foods and cultures Now redeveloped and renamed University Village it could hardly be more different In Maxwell Street Cresswell advocates approaching the study of place as an assemblage of things meanings and practices He models this innovative approach through a montage format that exposes the different types of texts primary secondary and photographic sources that have attempted to capture the essence of the area Cresswell studies his historical sources just as he explores the different elements of Maxwell Street exposing them layer by layer Brilliantly interweaving words and images Maxwell Street sheds light on a historic Chicago neighborhood and offers a new model for how to write about place that will interest anyone in the fields of geography urban studies or cultural history The Riverview Murders Michael Raleigh, 2015-02-15 The mystery fiction that Sara Paretsky fashions from Chicago's South Side is fully matched in Raleigh's gritty North Side tales Publishers Weekly Margaret O Mara's brother disappeared decades ago But now that his last known associate has just been found dead O Mara hires PI Paul Whelan to investigate Whelan makes the rounds through seedy bars and dilapidated apartment buildings discovering connections to a long gone Chicago amusement park that was once the site of another murder Soon Whelan is navigating his way through dark pasts deep secrets and a mystery that may cost him his life What makes this riveting private eye yarn work is a mixture of superior Chicago atmosphere with the ghost of the legendary Riverview amusement park lurking in the shadows great dialogue and compassionately drawn characters Booklist Killer on Argyle Street Michael Raleigh, 2019-02-06 A Chicago PI hunts for a missing kid who fell in with the wrong crowd Raleigh presents a genuine good guy in the luckless Whelan Publishers Weekly An elderly woman has asked private investigator Paul Whelan to look into the disappearance of Tony Blanchard a young man she'd taken in after his parents died Instead Whelan discovers a string of murders all tied to a car theft ring All the evidence suggests that Tony is dead as well but Whelan keeps digging until he finds himself surrounded by a dangerous maze of silent witnesses crooked cops and people willing to kill to keep the truth from surfacing When a friend from Whelan's past emerges a friend Whelan thought long dead his investigation takes a dangerous turn one that brings him no closer to Tony and a lot closer to his own demise Raleigh's Paul Whelan series brings to mind the late Ross MacDonald's Lew Archer novels Read Whelan now he won't be a secret much longer Booklist The Chicago of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2011 The importance of Chicago in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on Chicago centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The Chicago of Fiction A Resource Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 1 200 works of fiction significantly set in Chicago and published between 1852 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included

The SAGE Handbook of Human Geography, 2v Roger Lee, Noel Castree, Rob Kitchin, Vicky Lawson, Anssi Paasi, Chris Philo, Sarah Radcliffe, Susan M.
