The Media in Africa and Africa in the Media Gretchen Walsh, 1996      Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes      Information Sources in the Social Sciences David Fisher, Sandra Price, Terry Hanstock, 2018-02-19 No detailed description available for Information Sources in the Social Sciences      Journalism Jo A. Cates, 2004-05-30 Journalism A Guide to the Reference Literature is a critically annotated bibliographic guide to print and electronic sources in print and broadcast journalism The first edition was published in 1990 the second in 1997 It has been described as one of the critical reference sources in journalism today and it is a key bibliographic guide to the literature Choice magazine called it a benchmark publication for which there are no comparable sources The format is similar to the second edition What makes this edition significantly different is the separation of Commercial Databases and Internet Resources Commercial Databases includes standard fee based resources The new chapter on Internet sources features Web based resources not included in the commercial databases chapter as well as portals other online files listservs newsgroups and Web logs blogs All chapters have been revised and there are significant revisions in Directories Yearbooks and Collections Miscellaneous Sources Core Periodicals Societies and Associations and Research Centers and Archives The second edition has 789 entries The third edition contains almost 1 000 entries James Carey of Columbia University who provided the foreword for the first two editions has updated his foreword for this edition      Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set KEVIN SHILLINGTON., 2005      Mediatized China-Africa Relations Shubo Li, 2017-10-24 This cutting edge book explores the role of the media in the highly disputed area of China Africa relations notably how various aspects of the issue have been portrayed negotiated and contested in media and academic discourses As Africa s biggest trading partner and creditor China explores Africa not only as a marketplace for importing primary commodities and exporting manufactured goods but also as a preferred testing ground for its media and telecommunication sector aspiring for further internationalization At a time when the influence from Global North has been on the wane in the continent emerging powers are regarded as new inspirations for Africa s development China in particular tries to bolster multipolarity in Africa by factoring in media influence and facilitating the digitalization process of the continent This book offers an up to date geopolitical analysis of China Africa examining the role of communication and telecommunication in the power shift especially in constructing social and cultural realities in which the idea of development has been recurrently redefined and negotiated in the public domain This volume tackles the issue from the new perspective of mediatization considering how the media on the one hand shapes public opinion with its narratives and a logic of its own and on the other hand simultaneously becomes an integrated part of other institutions like politics trade business as more of these institutional activities are performed through both interactive and mass media
