

"Becoming" by Michelle Obama

"I spent much of my childhood listening to the sound of striving. It came in the form of piano music, the persistent plinking of practice exercises rising up from the living room where my great-aunt Robbie, who taught piano lessons, carried out her work. There was the hum of my mother's sewing machine, the crunch of my father's wrench as he worked over the Buick in our garage. This was South Side, Chicago, in the 1970s, a place where you could hear hard work happening all around you."
