The Metamorphoses Of Don Juans Women Early Parity To Late Modern Pathology:

The Metamorphoses of Don Juan's Women Ann Davies, 2004 While many scholars have approached Don Juan in terms of myth this study argues for the understanding of Don Juan as a discourse of gender relations changing over time Using examples from the plays by Tirso de Molina Moliere Mozart Zorrilla Shaw and Frisch it argues that Don Juan's entire identity as a male individual is constructed around women but that over time reflecting a growing sense of crisis in the male individual the women appear more and more pathological in their desire for Don Juan In contrast with early modern works where women fend for themselves in a positive manner the heroines of later Don Juan works actively prey on the individual male This book argues that these changes in approach to the female characters and in tandem the developing identity of the male protagonist suggest Don Juan as dischronic discourse rather than myth Tales of Seduction Sarah Wright, 2007-10-24 Don Juan is one of the most intriguing creations of Western literature a perpetual source of fascination In the popular imagination he exists as a legendary seducer of women a trickster and transgressor of sacred boundaries Crossing cultures from east to west he has been the recipient of countless revisions while the twentieth century has viewed the figure afresh through the prism of its own cultural terms of reference and social concerns Using an interdisciplinary approach Tales of Seduction focuses on the fascinating intersections between myth culture and intellectual inquiry Sarah Wright takes Don Juan back to Spain and examines the confluences of Spanish culture with aspects of Western intellectual history such as medicine psychoanalysis and linguistics where she finds Don Juan continues to transgress the limits of culture until the present Making Waves Anniversary Volume Ann Davies, Parvathi Kumaraswami, Claire Williams, 2021-02-10 Gender and women's studies have formed part of the academic landscape for many years but while the field is now established enough to have developed in depth and perspectives there remain many areas of significance yet to be explored most significantly much of the work carried out has remained rooted in the Anglo American context Those working outside this context are increasingly aware of the need to understand women in different cultural contexts in order to determine whether to what extent and how representations of women and cultural contexts are interactive and dynamic concepts The current volume contributes to the growing interest in the field of women and culture in the Hispanic and Lusophone worlds and shows how women writers researchers teachers and students have always made waves to counteract the complacency prejudice and tradition that threatens to ignore or subsume them The volume draws on literary study the starting point for much of the early work on gender in Spain the Lusophone world and Latin America but also goes beyond it to discuss women's interaction not only with literature but also with art and language itself in the Hispanic and Lusophone contexts It acts as a showcase for contemporary scholarship undertaken in Hispanic and Lusophone gender studies developing earlier insights and forging new ones to refine the debate continuing in the subject The contributors include both established scholars with a proven track record and promising newcomers to the field The volume arises from the individual research projects and sustained discussions of Women in Spanish Portuguese and Latin American Studies WiSPs an organisation that exists to promote scholarship by and about women in the field of Iberian Lusophone and Latin American Studies This volume celebrates the first seven years of WiSPs s life and presents some of the research presented under its auspices at annual conferences and study days

Carmen ,2016-08-01 Since Prosper M rim e and Georges Bizet with his librettists Meilhac and Hal vy brought the figure of the Spanish Carmen to prominence in the nineteenth century an astonishing eighty or so film versions of the story have been made This collection of essays gathers together a unique body of scholarly critique focused on that Carmen narrative in film It covers the phenomenon from a number of aspects cultural studies gender studies studies in race and representation musicology film history and the history of performance The essays take us from the days of silent film to twenty first century hip hop style showing through a variety of theoretical and historical perspectives that despite social and cultural transformations particularly in terms of gender sexuality and race remarkably little has changed in terms of basic human desires and anxieties at least as they are represented in this body of films The conception of Carmen s independent sexuality as a source of danger both to men and occasionally women and to respectable society has been a constant Nor has sexual and ethnic otherness lost its appeal On the other hand the corpus of Carmen films is more than a simple recycling of stereotypes and each engages newly with the social and cultural issues of their time

European Film Noir Andrew Spicer,2019-01-04 European Film Noir is the first book to bring together specialist discussions of film noir in specific European national cinemas Written by leading scholars this groundbreaking study provides an authoritative understanding of an important aspect of European cinema and of film noir itself for too long considered as a solely American form The Introduction reviews the problems of defining film noir its key characteristics and discusses its significance to the development of European film the relationship of specific national films noirs to each other to American noir and to historical and social change Eight chapters then discuss film noir in France Germany Britain and Spain analysing both earlier developments and the evolution of neo noir through to the present A further chapter explores film noir in Italian cinema where its presence is not so well defined Each piece provides a critical overview of the most significant films in relation to their industrial and social contexts European Film Noir is an important contribution to the study of European cinema that will have a broad appeal to undergraduates cin astes film teachers and researchers

Image Into Identity Michael Wintle,2006 The pervading theme of this book is the construction and allocation of identity especially through images and imagery The essays analyse how the dominant social discourses and imageries construct identity or assign subject positions in relation to the categories of race nation region gender and language The volume is designed to inform the study of those categories in cultural studies sociology anthropology gender studies literary studies philosophy and history Its coverage is geographically global multidisciplinary and theoretically eclectic but also accessible The authors include both established and rising scholars from historical literary media gender and cultural studies This innovative collection will appeal to all those who are interested in the mechanisms of constructing and evolving personal and group identities in past and present

Spain on Screen A. Davies, 2011-01-05 A collection of original essays from leading scholars in the field exploring the contemporary debates concerns and controversies ongoing in Spanish film industry culture and scholarship The essays reveal the far reaching shifts that have occurred in the Spanish film scene making essential reading for all interested in European cinema

The Mirror Metaphor in Modern Spanish Literary Aesthetics Michael Schlig, 2004 The author explains that his study is an inquiry into how theorists critics and artists especially writers have used the mirror as a metaphor Following a theoretical discussion concerning material and figurative mirrors Schlig Spanish Agnes College examines this metaphor from various angles art as mirror mirrors in art mirrors as art He then traces the importance of mirrors through the major aesthetic movements of 18th and 19th century Spain including Neoclassicism Romanticism Realism and Naturalism and the Avant Garde Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Book Review Index Cumulation Dana
