Verduin, 2024-03-26 The gold standard reference for all those who work with people with mental illness Kaplan Sadock's Comprehensive Textbook of Psychiatry edited by Drs Robert Boland and Marcia L Verduin has consistently kept pace with the rapid growth of research and knowledge in neural science as well as biological and psychological science This two volume eleventh edition offers the expertise of more than 600 renowned contributors who cover the full range of psychiatry and mental health including neural science genetics neuropsychiatry psychopharmacology and other key areas Appalachian Mental Health Susan E. Keefe, 2014-10-17 This volume is the first to explore broadly many important theoretical and applied issues concerning the mental health of Appalachians The authors anthropologists psychologists social workers and others overturn many assumptions held by earlier writers who have tended to see Appalachia and its people as being dominated by a culture of poverty While the heterogeneity of the region is acknowledged in the diversity of sub areas and populations discussed dominant themes emerge concerning Appalachia as a whole The result of the authors varied approaches is a cumulative portrait of a strong regional culture with native support systems based on family community and religion Some of the contributors examine therapeutic approaches including family therapy that consider the implications of the cultural context Others explore the impact of Appalachian culture on the impact of Appalachian culture on the development of mental health problems and coping skills and the resulting potential for conflict between Appalachian clients and non Appalachian health providers Still others examine cultural considerations in therapeutic encounters and mental health service delivery The book is rich in case studies and empirical data The practical applied nature of the essays will enhance their value for practitioners seeking ways to improve mental health care in the region Neuropsychosocial Intervention Robert L. Karol, 2003-06-26 Neuropsychosocial intervention is an innovative and clinically proven treatment approach to severe behavioral problems that can affect persons with acquired brain injury This book outlines the nature and significance of behavioral dyscontrol explains aggression and details the neuropsychosocial treatment approach and the principles on which it is based Hispanics and Health Research in the Public Health Service, 1984 Therapy, Ideology, and Social Change Leith Mullings, 1984-01-01 Alternative Medicines J. Warren Salmon, 2022-08-12 Originally published in 1984 and now reissued with a new Preface this was the first systematic and evaluative investigation of the holistic health movement the first to put its contribution and limitations in both historical and current perspectives The book answers two essential questions how do alternative medicines challenge the tenets of conventional scientific medicine and could a synthesis of these alternative medicines and scientific medicine lead to a reformulation of conceptions of healing A historical survey of medical care up to the use of scientific medicine in the 19th and 20th Centuries is followed by chapters on different traditions of alternative medicine homeopathy chiropractic non medical and spiritual healing oriental medicine and self care Each considers the historical roots and development of the particular alternative medicine describes its principles and how they relate to mainstream medicine The concluding chapter considers social policy implications and political issues Ritual Healing in Suburban America Meredith B.

McGuire,Debra Kantor,1988 Many Americans believe that people who practice folk healing are uneducated and too poor to afford conventional medical care Contrary to this popular belief Meredith McGuire finds that a large number of college educated middle class suburbanites participate in a variety of nonmedical healing groups In suburban New Jersey people practice such diverse alternatives as psychic healing New Age therapies naturopathy Christian Science Transcendental Meditation reflexology acupuncture yoga Jain meditation Therapeutic Touch reflexology shiatsu rebirthing and occult therapies McGuire places these various healing groups into broader categories according to their traditional sources of inspiration and their beliefs about healing power She then looks at the participants diverse ideas about health and illness By locating alternative healing in the context of these beliefs she shows the many ways the adherents experience ritual healing From publisher s description Shrinking History David E. Stannard,1980-06-05 Studies the burgeoning field of psychohistory from Freud its primogenitor to its present day academic practitioners and argues that little if any psychohistory is good history The author systematically points out the pitfalls sheer irrationality and ultimately ahistorical nature of this mode of historical inquiry
