important collection sets the next stage of Jewish theological thought bringing together a cross section of interesting new voices from all movements in Judaism to inspire and stimulate discussion now and in the years to come Provocative and wide ranging these invigorating and creative insights from a new generation s thought leaders provide a coherent and inspiring picture of Jewish belief in our time The passionate voices of a new generation of Jewish thinkers continue the dialogue with God examining the dynamics of what Jews can believe today They explore A dynamic God in process The canon of Jewish literature and its potential to be both contemporary and authentic to tradition Critical terms and categories for discussing Jewish theology The ongoing nature of the Jewish search for God Ruptures within the modern Jewish condition And much more

Making Prayer Real Mike Comins,2010 Join over fifty Jewish spiritual leaders from all denominations in a candid conversation about the why and how of prayer how prayer changes us and how to discern a response from God In this fascinating forum they share the challenges of prayer what it means to pray how to develop your own personal prayer voice and how to rediscover meaning and God s presence in the traditional Jewish prayer book Book jacket Facing Illness, Finding God Joseph B. Meszler,2010 Whether you are facing illness yourself serving as a caregiver providing pastoral care or simply wondering where God is when we get sick the teachings and wisdom of Jewish tradition can help you cope with the difficulties of illness and infirmity

Confronting Scandal Erica Brown,2010 We can battle insensitivity immorality and dishonesty in our lives individually and collectively as a people We have a wonderful road map in the Torah and its traditions It is time to think seriously about our reputation in the world and what we can do to enhance it not because we want to look good but because we want to be good from Chapter 6 What should we do when we see other Jews behaving badly Most Jews are good upstanding people who live by a strong moral code and follow Isaiah s words to be a light to others But when Jews in the public sphere make headlines for being caught in scandals their actions can provoke anger shame and a sense of betrayal in the larger Jewish community In this insightful and timely book Jewish scholar Dr Erica Brown presents an intentional disciplined framework to explore the emotions provoked in the Jewish community by reports of Jews committing crime She proposes that we transform our sense of shame into actions that inspire and sustain a moral culture Drawing from the Hebrew Bible Talmud and our centuries long Jewish commitment to ethics she outlines ways you can activate and operate your personal moral compass and shows how you can empower yourself with sacred obligation responsibility kindness and knowledge to increase Jewish pride

Repentance Louis E. Newman,2013-07 An inspiring way to reclaim your integrity and renew your sense of moral purpose Like water teshuvah is both destructive and creative It dissolves the person you were but simultaneously provides the moisture you need to grow anew It erodes the hard edges of your willfulness but also refreshes your spirit It can turn the tallest barriers of moral blindness into rubble while it also gently nourishes the hidden seeds of hope buried deep in your soul Teshuvah like water has the power both to wash away past sin and to shower you with the blessing of a new future if only you trust it and allow yourself to be carried along in its current from Part VII In this candid and comprehensive probe into the nature of moral transgression and spiritual healing Dr Louis E Newman examines both the practical and philosophical dimensions of teshuvah Judaism's core religious moral teaching on repentance and its value for us Jews and non Jews alike today He exposes the inner logic of teshuvah as well as the beliefs about God and humankind that make it possible He also charts the path of teshuvah revealing to us how we can free ourselves from the burden of our own transgressions by Acknowledging our transgressions Confessing Feeling remorse Apologizing Making restitution Soul reckoning Avoiding sin when the next opportunity arises Haftarot, 2006 The Book of Jewish Sacred Practices CLAL—The National Jewish Center for Learning and Leadership, 2012-02-24 Discover how to make virtually any moment in your day a significant part of a meaningful Jewish life As we have discovered and as our sages have long known there is no experience in the life of a Jew that cannot be marked in Jewish ways The book you hold in your hands is the result of the kinds of rituals we have sculpted together over the years It is not a prayer book or even a compendium of obligatory Jewish rituals Rather it is a source for all to use creatively from the Introduction Decades of experience by CLAL The National Jewish Center for Learning and Leadership in connecting spirituality with daily life come together in this one comprehensive handbook In these pages you have access to teachings that can help to sanctify almost any moment in your day Offering a meditation a blessing a profound Jewish teaching and a ritual for more than one hundred diverse everyday events and holidays this guide includes sacred practices for Lighting Shabbat candles Blessing your parents Running a marathon Visiting the sick Building a sukkah Seeing natural wonders Moving into a new home Saying goodbye to a beloved pet Making a shiva call Traveling and much more Drawing from both traditional and contemporary sources The Book of Jewish Sacred Practices will show you how to make more holy any moment in your daily life Christians & Jews—Faith to Faith Rabbi James Rudin, 2013-07-13 In time for Pope Francis's new initiatives We now have the potential to end two thousand years of hostility will we succeed New in paperback With keen wisdom and a masterful understanding of history Rabbi James Rudin an acclaimed authority in the field of Jewish Christian relations provides the context necessary for Christians and Jews to recognize the critical challenges posed by the past and the future of their two religions Spanning twenty centuries of controversy horror and promise Rudin's narrative examines The sources of both conflict and commonality between the two religions The need to address and redress past wrongs The agenda required to create a shared future free of bigotry It includes proven approaches for successful interreligious dialogues including tips on session organization project ideas and a discussion guide to enhance Christians and Jews knowledge of each other
