Nicholas Entrikin, 2004-06-24 This volume has as its focus the role of the Marshall Plan as both a force in the transformation of European Economic practices and a stimulus to political integration in Europe This organizing theme is framed in terms of two other issues that are central to contemporary debates in international political economy and geopolitical studies the origins and development of the Cold War and the growing globalisation of the world economy In relating the Marshall Plan to these issues this book goes beyond the typical diplomatic history approach to place the Plan in the context of both the political economy of late twentieth century Europe and the impact of American models of business and government that came with the Plan Food consumption in the Marshall Islands Troubat, N., Sharp, M.K., 2021-11-22 This report presents the main results derived from the analysis of the food data collected in the 2019 20 HIES to inform current patterns on food and nutrient consumption in Marshall Islands The analysis of the food insecurity experience scale data collected in the 2019 20 HIES reveals that more than one household in three is experiencing moderate or severe levels of food insecurity which means they are lacking money or other resources to access foods in enough quantity or of good quality The further analysis of the food data collected in the same survey finds that for around 5 percent of Marshallese their dietary intake is lower than their basic dietary needs to maintain a normal active and healthy life Whenever possible indicators are given at national level and for sub groups of the population Republic of the Marshall Islands International Monetary Fund, 2006-03-08 Real output growth of the Republic of the Marshall Islands appears to have slowed sharply in FY2003 and again in FY2004 The 2005 Article IV Consultation highlights that the economic activity has been hampered by delays in implementing an upgraded public works program and the closure of a large privately owned tuna processing plant The fiscal position deteriorated in FY2004 This deterioration reflects on the revenue side a decline in grants aimed at infrastructure projects owing in part to delays in initiating projects lower income tax collection and volatility in nontax revenue The Marshall Plan in Action, 1950 The Marshall Plan Summer Thomas Andrew Bailey, 1977 3 Years of the Marshall Plan United States.
