The Matrix Of Policy In The Philippines:

The Politics of Elections in Southeast Asia R. H. Taylor, 1996-07-13 This volume examines the countries in Southeast Asia that have conducted multi party elections Political Control of the Economy Edward R. Tufte, 1978 Speculations about the effects of politics on economic life have a long and vital tradition but few efforts have been made to determine the precise relationship between them Edward Tufte a political scientist who covered the 1976 Presidential election for Newsweek seeks to do just that His sharp analyses and astute observations lead to an eye opening view of the impact of political life on the national economy of America and other capitalist democracies The analysis demonstrates how politicians political parties and voters decide who gets what when and how in the economic arena A nation s politics it is argued shape the most important aspects of economic life inflation unemployment income redistribution the growth of government and the extent of central economic control Both statistical data and case studies based on interviews and Presidential documents are brought to bear on four topics They are 1 the political manipulation of the economy in election years 2 the new international electoral economic cycle 3 the decisive role of political leaders and parties in shaping macroeconomic outcomes and 4 the response of the electorate to changing economic conditions Finally the book clarifies a central question in political economy How can national economic policy be conducted in both a democratic and a competent fashion The Matrix of Policy in the Philippines Harvey A. Averch, 1979 Area Handbook for the Philippines Nena Vreeland, 1976 1974 Annual Supplement Joan Schmitz Bergholt, 2013-12-21 The Statesman's Year-Book 1973-74 J. Paxton, 2016-12-28 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world Sultanistic Regimes Houchang E. Chehabi, Juan J. Linz, 1998-06-05 Authoritarian governments are often based on raw power sustained by fear of punishment and hope of reward This text identifies common characteristics of such regimes comparing them to totalitarian and authoritarian forms of government and tracing common patterns for their genesis and demise Policing America's Empire Alfred W. McCoy, 2009-10-15 At the dawn of the twentieth century the U S Army swiftly occupied Manila and then plunged into a decade long pacification campaign with striking parallels to today s war in Iraq Armed with cutting edge technology from America s first information revolution the U S colonial regime created the most modern police and intelligence units anywhere under the American flag In Policing America s Empire Alfred W McCoy shows how this imperial panopticon slowly crushed the Filipino revolutionary movement with a lethal mix of firepower surveillance and incriminating information Even after Washington freed its colony and won global power in 1945 it would intervene in the Philippines periodically for the next half century using the country as a laboratory for counterinsurgency and rearming local security forces for repression In trying to create a democracy in the Philippines the United States unleashed profoundly undemocratic forces that persist to the present day But security techniques bred in the tropical hothouse of colonial rule were not contained McCoy shows at this remote periphery of American power Migrating homeward through both personnel and policies these innovations helped shape a new federal security apparatus during World War I. Once established under the pressures of wartime mobilization, this distinctively American system of public-private surveillance persisted in various forms for the next fifty years as an omnipresent sub rosa matrix that honeycombed U.S. society with active informers, secretive civilian organizations, and government counterintelligence agencies. In each succeeding global crisis, this covert nexus expanded its domestic operations, producing new contraventions of civil liberties: from the harassment of labor activists and ethnic communities during World War I to the mass incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II, all the way to the secret blacklisting of suspected communists during the Cold War.

The Statesman's Year-Book 1974-75 J. Paxton, 2016-12-23. The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world.

Matrix of Policy in the Philippines, 1948-1969, 1984. This data collection contains information for the following ten major topic areas:

PART 1 Survey Pegasus
File 182: variables for 1,550 respondents in 1969. Variables cover attitudes toward Philippine government, social, economic, and political conditions; attitudes toward and knowledge of dissidents; and exposure to crime and violence. Sample was stratified by language and restricted to those between the ages of 21 and 65.

PART 2 General Province Data
This file contains the data used in the factor analyses reported in Chapter II of The Matrix of Policy in the Philippines. Because the data are drawn from so many different sources, the descriptions contain notes on origins. 110 variables for 49 provinces on general socioeconomic, political, cultural, and agricultural variables for various years: 1918, 1968 are included.

PART 3 Province Election Data
This file contains 157 variables for 49 provinces on voting in elections since 1948 and corresponding population characteristics. Data on elections are from the relevant Commission on Elections (COMELEC) reports; population and agricultural data are from the censuses; income and labor force data are from the Philippine Statistical Survey of Households; municipal expenditures are taken from reports of the Auditor General.

PART 4 City Voting Data
This file contains data on voting in 36 Philippine chartered cities. The data sources are the same as those for the Province Election file, with the addition of estimates of population by mother tongue calculated from the 0.5 percent sample of the 1960 Census. There are 153 variables on election returns since 1953, some socioeconomic data for 1960, and government revenue aid and appropriations for 1961-68.

PART 5 Municipio Data
This file contains data used in analysis of Huk control in 57 municipios. The data on 84 variables are drawn from Philipin Cf <http://webapp.icpsr.umich.edu/cocoon/ICPSR/STUDY/05901.xml>
