come why we will make the best of it This will not be the first time we have spent the night out of doors Are we lost gasped Hazel Holland It looks very much as though we had gone astray replied Miss Elting who was acting as guardian and chaperon to the Meadow Brook Girls Oh thave me wailed Grace Thompson her impish little face appearing to grow several degrees smaller Girls Please do not become excited urged the guardian There is no cause for alarm Even if we have lost our way we shall find it again on the morrow Harriet you have the map Suppose we examine it again and see if we can find out where we are We surely must be near human habitation and the country is so open that really getting lost is quite impossible

The Meadow-Brook Girls Afloat Janet Aldridge, 2006-05-22 I wouldn't advise you young ladies to take the boat out Miss Elting instantly recalled the message from her brother The telegram was in her pocket at that moment If you have any trouble Dee Dickinson will see that you are protected read the message It was Dee Dickinson who had spoken to her that moment Dee had made a distinctly unfavorable impression on Miss Elting the guardian and companion of the Meadow Brook Girls Her brother's fishing boat had been left in the care of this man by her brother Bert who had now turned it over to his sister and the Meadow Brook Girls for their summer vacation THE MEADOW-BROOK GIRLS UNDER CANVAS OR FUN FROLIC IN THE SUMMER CAMP JANET ALDRIDGE, 1913 The Meadow-Brook Girls by the Sea Janet Aldridge, 1914

CHAPTER I A DELIGHTFUL MYSTERY I think we are ready to start girls Miss Elting folded the road map that she had been studying and placed it in a pocket of her long dust coat There was a half smile on her face a merry twinkle in her eyes Which way do I drive questioned Jane McCarthy Straight ahead out of the village answered Miss Elting the guardian of the party of young girls who were embarking on their summer's vacation under somewhat unusual circumstances It's the first time I ever started for a place without knowing what the place was or where I was going declared Jane McCarthy otherwise known as Crazy Jane Won't you please tell us where we are going lisped Grace Thompson Miss Elting shook her head with decision Do my father and mother know where we are going persisted Grace Of course they know Tommy The parents of each of you know and I know and so shall you after you reach your destination Have you everything in the car Jane Everything but myself nodded Jane The latter's automobile well loaded with camping equipment stood awaiting its passengers The latter were Miss Elting Jane McCarthy Harriet Burrell Grace Thompson Hazel Holland and Margery Brown the party being otherwise known as The Meadow Brook Girls Get in girls We'll shake the dust of Meadow Brook from our tires before you can count twenty continued Jane If Crazy Jane were to drive through the town slowly folks surely would think something startling had happened to her Is there anything you wish to do before we leave Miss Elting Not that I think of at the moment Jane Oh let's say good bye to our folks suggested Margery Brown I have said good bye answered Grace with finality We'll give them a farewell blast chuckled Jane With that she climbed into the car and with a honk of the horn drove down that street and into the next keeping the horn going almost continually As they passed the home of each girl the young women gave the yell of the Meadow Brook Girls Rah rah rah Rah rah rah Meadow Brook Meadow Brook Sis boom ah It was shouted in chorus at their homes and as the car passed the homes of their friends as well Hands were waved from windows hats were swung in the air by boy friends while the older people smiled indulgently and nodded to them as the rapidly moving motor car passed through the village I think the town knows all about it now Suppose we make a start suggested Miss Elting We haven't thenaded the pothtmathter yet Tommy reminded her Nor the butcher the baker and the candle stick maker answered Harriet Burrell laughingly How long a drive have we Miss Elting Four or five hours ordinarily Jane undoubtedly will make it in much less time if she drives at her usual rate of speed Straight south Jane I will tell you when to change The faces of the girls wore a puzzled expression They could not imagine where they were going Miss Elting had made a mystery of this summer vacation and not a word had the girls been able to obtain from her as to where they were to go whether to tour the country in Crazy Jane's automobile or to go into camp Tommy declared that it was a perfectly delightful myhtery and that she didn't care where they were going while Margery on the contrary grumbled incessantly The start had been made late in the afternoon The day had been cloudy There were even indications of rain but the girls did not care They were too well inured to the weather to be disturbed by lowering skies and threatening clouds In the meantime Jane McCarthy was bowling along to the southward throwing up a cloud of dust having many narrow escapes from collisions with farmers wagons and wandering stock
