

A Masculine Girl

Written by: Clariza R. Villar

Every journey through education is made more meaningful when you have a friend in class, someone who shares the ups and downs of the academic path. In every classroom, there exists a tapestry of individuals, each weaving their own unique thread into the fabric of our educational experience. Amidst this diverse assembly, one individual, Kimberly Vallecser, stands as a prominent figure whose presence leaves a permanent mark on our class.

Since grade 11 Kimberly and I know each other due to the fact that we're classmates. This manly woman lived in a wonderful village that has pretty views in East Poblacion, Manukan, Zamboanga del Norte. She like the place where she lived in, because their place is quiet and near at the seashore. Among the three siblings she is the youngest and blessed of her family. Her mother is the light of their sweet home that manage them every day and her father is a farmer who supports their daily needs. This woman love to eat seafood but her number one favorite is crab, due to the fact that it melts in one's mouth and enjoyable to eat.

This masculine girl loves to sleep because when she's sleeping she can escape from the problem of reality. She likes the most from a person who listen to her rants and validating her emotions and she doesn't like from a person who is ungrateful. This masculine woman has a lot of ambitions in life along the lines of, finished her studies to become a seafarer, travel around the universe, support her parents financially, and a single rich Tita.

Taking everything into account, the journey of getting to know Kimberly has been an enlightening and enriching experience for both myself and our class. Through this exploration of her background and interests, we have uncovered a tapestry of qualities that make Kimberly an invaluable presence in our educational community. As we continue to learn and grow together, it becomes increasingly evident that the diversity of individuals within our class is a source of strength, and Kimberly exemplifies this strength through her unique attributes. Kimberly serves as a reminder that each of us brings something special, and it is through this recognition and appreciation of our differences that we truly thrive as a collective, unified in our pursuit of knowledge and growth.
