Publications New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1999 (Re)presenting Brunei Darussalam Lian Kwen Fee,Paul J. Carnegie,Noor Hasharina Hassan,2023-04-06 This thoughtful and wide ranging open access volume explores the forces and issues shaping and defining contemporary identities and everyday life in Brunei Darussalam It is a subject that until now has received comparatively limited attention from mainstream social scientists working on Southeast Asian societies The volume helps remedy that deficit by detailing the ways in which religion gender place ethnicity nation state formation migration and economic activity work their way into and reflect in the lives of ordinary Bruneians In a first of its kind all the lead authors of the chapter contributions are local Bruneian scholars and the editors skilfully bring the study of Brunei into the fold of the sociology of everyday life from multiple disciplinary directions By engaging local scholars to document everyday concerns that matter to them the volume presents a collage of distinct but interrelated case studies that have been previously undocumented or relatively underappreciated These interior portrayals render new angles of vision scale and nuance to our understandings of Brunei often overlooked by mainstream inquiry Each in its own way speaks to how structures and institutions express themselves through complex processes to influence the lives of inhabitants Academic scholars university students and others interested in the study of contemporary Brunei Darussalam will find this volume an invaluable resource for unravelling its diversity and textures At the same time it hopefully stimulates critical reflection on positionality hierarchies of knowledge production cultural diversity and the ways in which we approach the social science study of Brunei I wish to commend the editors for bringing this volume to fruition It is an important book in the context of Southeast Asian sociology and even more important for the development of our social geographical cultural and historical knowledge of Brunei Victor T King University of Leeds Democracy in Southern Europe Isabelle Calleja

Ragonesi,2019-02-28 How have Malta and Cyprus both EU members transitioned from colonial island states to independent democracies With the assistance of primary documentation this book traces the difficult path of these two states to becoming independent liberal democracies by using the pathway of democratization through decolonization Using socio economic and political data analysed through the microscope of political science and international relations theories Isabelle Calleja Ragonesi charts the progress of the two islands in the context of a number of four distinct phases Firstly decolonization independence and achieving the status of procedural democracies secondly post colonial independence consolidating democracy and regime breakdown thirdly sovereign nation state status and second attempts at consolidating democracy and finally attempting to reach substantive democracy status and EU membership The study of these two states is contextualized within the context of democratization in Southern Europe and the cases of Malta and Cyprus provide new insights on the region for scholars of political science and international institutions Proceedings of the ... Annual Conference and ... Conference of CASTME Africa Science Teachers Association of Nigeria. Conference,2002 Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Bangladesh Ali Riaz,Mohammad Sajjadur Rahman,2016-01-29 In the past decade Bangladesh has achieved significant social and economic progress Despite high population density a limited natural resource base underdeveloped infrastructure frequent natural disasters and political uncertainty the country has recorded positive developments in terms of broad economic and social indicators This Handbook presents a comprehensive and interdisciplinary resource on the politics society and economy of Bangladesh today Divided into six thematic sections the Handbook focuses on relevant issues and trends on History and the making of contemporary Bangladesh Politics and institutions Economy and development Energy and environment State society and rights Security and external relations Written by a team of international experts in the field the chapters provide an accessible and up to date insight into contemporary Bangladesh The Handbook will be of interest to students and academics of South Asian studies as well as policymakers journalists and others who wish to learn more about this increasingly important country Changing Perspectives Allison E. Schottenstein,2021-03-15 Changing Perspectives charts the pivotal period in Houston s history when Jewish and Black leadership eventually came together to work for positive change This is a story of two communities both of which struggled to claim the rights and privileges they desired Previous scholars of Southern Jewish history have argued that Black Jewish relations did not exist in the South However during the 1930s to the 1980s Jews and Blacks in Houston interacted in diverse and oftentimes surprising ways For example Houston s Jewish leaders and eventually Black political leaders forged a connection that blossomed into the creation of the Mickey Leland Kibbutzim Internship in Israel for disadvantaged Black youth Initially Houston Jewish leadership battled with their devotion to liberalism and sympathy with oppressed Blacks and their desire to acculturate The distance between Houston s Jews and Blacks diminished after changing demographics the end of segregation city redistricting and the emergence of Black political power Simultaneously Israel s victory during the Six Day War caused the city s Jews to embrace their Jewish identity and form an unexpected bond with Black political leaders over the cause of Zionism Allison Schottenstein shows that Black Jewish relations did exist during the Long Civil Rights Movement in Houston Indeed Houston played a significant role in the scope of Southern Jewish history and in expanding our understanding of Black Jewish relations in the United States PAIS International in Print Catherine Korvin,2001-04 Partners of Zaynab Diane D'Souza,2014-09-03 How do pious Shia Muslim women nurture and sustain their religious lives How do their experiences and beliefs differ from or overlap with those of men What do gender based religious roles and interactions reveal about the Shia Muslim faith In Partners of Zaynab Diane D Souza presents a rich ethnography of urban Shia women in India exploring women s devotional lives through the lens of religious narrative sacred space ritual performance leadership and iconic symbols Religious scholars have tended to devalue women s religious expressions confining them to the periphery of a male centered ritual world This viewpoint often assumes that women s ritual behaviors are the unsophisticated product of limited education and experience and even a less developed female nature By illuminating vibrant female narratives within Shia religious teachings the fascinating history of a shrine led by women the contemporary lives of dynamic female preachers and women s popular prayers and rituals of petition Partners of Zaynab demonstrates that the religious lives of women are not a flawed approximation of male defined norms and behaviors but a vigorous authentic affirmation of faith within the religious mainstream D Souza questions the distinction between normative and popular religious behavior arguing that such a categorization not only isolates and devalues female ritual expressions but also weakens our understanding of religion as a whole Partners of Zaynab offers a compelling glimpse of Muslim faith and practice and a more complete understanding of the interplay of gender within Shia Islam
