Works of Washington Irving Washington Irving, 1854 American Julian Hawthorne, 1909 Tales of a Traveller Вашингтон Ирвинг, 2021-03-16 Famous People Justin Kuritzkes, 2019-07-09 This fresh smart novel in the guise of a celebrity memoir probes the inner life of a mega famous pop star Honestly what amazes me the most with a lot of the people I meet is that they think they're so big They think ultimately that the universe revolves around them And I'm beginning to think that it's only when you live a life like mine it's only when you're in a position where you don't even really own yourself when you can't even really say that you're a citizen of any particular country that you realize that we're all just tiny pieces of cosmic dust floating through the void until we disappear forever and we're never heard from again. So begins the life story of our uber famous twenty-two-year-old narrator, a teen idol since he was twelve when a video of him singing went viral. His star has only risen since. Now haunted by the suicide of his manager, father unsettled by the very different paths he and his teenage love and girl pop star counterpart Mandy have taken, and increasingly aware that he has signed on to something he has little control over, he begins to parse the divide that separates him from the normal people of the world. Sneakily philosophical, earnest and funny, Justin Kuritzkes's Famous People is a rollicking unforgettable look at the clash between fame and the human condition.
