Mind in the Making Ellen Galinsky, 2010-04-20 What kind of person do I want my child to be There are hundreds of books that give parents advice on everything from weaning to toilet training from discipline to nutrition But in spite of this

overwhelming amount of information there is very little research based advice for parents on how to raise their children to be well rounded and achieve their full potential helping them learn to take on life s challenges communicate well with others and remain committed to learning These are the essential life skills that Ellen Galinsky has spent her career pursuing through her own studies and through decades of talking with more than a hundred of the most outstanding researchers in child development and neuroscience The good news is that there are simple everyday things that all parents can do to build these skills in their children for today and for the future They don t cost money and it s never too late to begin In Mind in the Making Ellen Galinsky has grouped this research into seven critical areas that children need most 1 focus and self control 2 perspective taking 3 communicating 4 making connections 5 critical thinking 6 taking on challenges and 7 self directed engaged learning For each of these skills Galinsky shows parents what the studies have proven and she provides numerous concrete things that parents can do starting today to strengthen these skills in their children These aren t the kinds of skills that children just pick up these skills have to be fostered They are the skills that give children the ability to focus on their goals so that they can learn more easily and communicate what they ve learned These are the skills that prepare children for the pressures of modern life skills that they will draw on now and for years to come Mind in the Making is a truly groundbreaking book one that teaches parents how to give children the most important tools they will need Already acclaimed by such thought leaders as T Berry Brazelton M D David A Hamburg M D Adele Faber and Judy Woodruff Mind in the Making is destined to become a classic in the literature of parenting

The Mind in the Making James Harvey Robinson,2020-04-19 The Mind in the Making is a book to awaken every reader to a real understanding of why he thinks and acts as he does It is the well known historian s straightforward account of how our intelligence has evolved into the mental habits of modern life No book for popular reading shows so graphically that our thinking remains medieval in a world that has become complex and modern It will show you whether your thinking is ahead of the times or behind them If some magical transformation could be produced in men s ways of looking at themselves and their fellows no inconsiderable part of the evils which now afflict society would vanish away or remedy themselves automatically If the majority of influential persons held the opinions and occupied the point of view that a few rather uninfluential people now do there would for instance be no likelihood of another great war the whole problem of labor and capital would be transformed and attenuated national arrogance race animosity political corruption and inefficiency would all be reduced below the danger point

Minds in Motion Anne M. Thell, 2017-08-31 The central claim of Minds in Motion is that British travel writing of the long eighteenth century functions as an epistemological playing field where authors test empiricist models of engagement with the world while simultaneously seeking out the role of the self and the imagination in producing knowledge Whether exploring the relationship between the senses and the mind the narrative viability of experimental detachment or the literary dynamics of virtual witnessing eighteenth century travel authors persistently confront their positionality and raise difficult questions about the nature and value of first hand experience In one way or another they also complicate empiricist ideals by exploring the limits of individual perception and the role of the imagination in generating and relating knowledge While the genre is often viewed as either numbingly documentary or non literary and commercial travel literature actually operates at the front line of the period s intellectual developments illustrating both how individual writers grapple with philosophical ideals and how these ideals filter into the lives of ordinary people Indeed travel literature directly engages the scientific and philosophical concerns of the period while it is also widely avidly read as such it offers models for cognitive and rhetorical practices that are evaluated and either embraced or rejected by readers in a process of identification not unlike that which occurs in early English fiction Moreover because eighteenth century travel literature is so crucial to the development of so many fields from botany to the novel it illustrates vividly the divisive energies of discipline and genre formation while also archiving the shared aims and methods of what will become discrete fields of study Travelogues as diverse as Margaret Cavendish s Blazing World 1666 and Samuel Johnson s Journey to the Western Islands of Scotland 1775 reveal the epistemological circuitry of the eighteenth century and historicize the absorption of the philosophical tendencies that have come to define modernity
