Charitable Choices John P. Bartkowski, Helen A. Regis, 2003-02-01. Congregations and faith based organizations have become key participants in America's welfare revolution. Recent legislation has expanded the social welfare role of religious communities thus revealing a pervasive lack of faith in purely economic responses to poverty. Charitable Choices is an ethnographic study of faith based poverty relief in 30 congregations in the rural south. Drawing on in depth interviews and fieldwork in Mississippi faith communities it examines how religious conviction and racial dynamics shape congregational benevolence. Mississippi has long had the nation's highest poverty rate and was the first state to implement a faith based welfare reform initiative. The book provides a grounded and even handed treatment of congregational poverty relief rather than abstract theory on faith based initiatives. The volume examines how congregations are coping with national developments in social welfare policy and reveals the strategies that religious communities utilize to fight poverty in their local communities. By giving particular attention to the influence of theological convictions and organizational dynamics on religious service provision it identifies both the prospects and pitfalls likely to result from the expansion of charitable choice.

Congregational Studies in the UK Karin Tusting, 2017-03-02. This book presents the first comprehensive introduction to congregational studies in the UK. Through a series of innovative essays it explores the difference that the increasingly post Christian nature of British society is making to life in Christian congregations and compares this to the very different scenario which exists in the USA. Contributions from leading scholars in the field include rich case studies of local communities and theoretical analyses which reflect on issues of method and develop broader understandings. Congregational studies is revealed as a rich and growing field of interest to scholars across many disciplines and to those involved in congregational life.

A Gift of Belief Kathleen W. Buechel, 2021-06-01. Philanthropy has long been associated with images of industrial titans and wealthy families. In Pittsburgh long a center for industry the shadows of Carnegie, Mellon, Frick and others loom especially large while the stories of working class citizens who uplifted their neighbors remain untold For the first time these two portraits of Pittsburgh philanthropy converge in a rich historic tapestry The Gift of Belief reveals how Pittsburghers from every strata creed and circumstance organized their private resources for the public good The industrialists and their foundations are here but stand alongside lesser known philanthropists equally involved in institution building civic reform and community empowerment Beginning with sectarian philanthropy in the nineteenth century moving to scientific philanthropy in the early twentieth century and Pittsburgh Renaissance era institution building and concluding with modern entrepreneurship twelve authors trace how Pittsburgh aligned with led or lagged behind the national philanthropic story and explore how ideals of charity and philanthropy entwined to produce distinctive forms of engagement that has defined Pittsburgh s civic life
