The Medieval Chronicle, 2022-11-07 In the summer of 1996 the first international conference was held on the medieval chronicle a genre which until then had received but scant attention from historians or specialists in literary history or art history There are several reasons why the chronicle is particularly suited as the topic of an international conference In the first place there is its ubiquity all over Europe and throughout the Middle Ages chronicles were written both in Latin and in the vernacular and not only in Europe but also in the countries neighbouring on it like those of the Arabic world Secondly all chronicles raise such questions as by whom for whom or for what purpose were they written how do they reconstruct the past what determined the choice of verse or prose or what kind of literary influences are discernable in them Finally many chronicles have been beautifully illuminated and the relation between text and image leads to a wholly different set of questions It is the aim of the present volume to provide a representative survey of the on going research in the field of chronicle studies illustrated by examples from specific chronicles from a wide variety of countries periods and cultural backgrounds

A History of the Post in England from the Romans to the Stuarts Philip Beale, 2017-07-05 From Roman times until this century the business of government has been largely carried out by the writing of letters either in the form of instructions or of authorisations to deliver information orally These documents were addressed to the recipient and authenticated by a seal or signature often having a greeting and a personal conclusion The messengers who took them also carried copies of laws and regulations summonses to courts and whatever else was needed for the administration of the country Without a means of speedy delivery to all concerned there could be no effective government Separate postal services developed to meet the needs of nobles the church merchants towns and the public This book discusses three meanings of the word post the letters those who carried them and the means of distribution It shows that there is some continuity from Roman times and that the postal service established throughout England after the conquest of 1066 continued until 1635 when it was officially extended to the public thus starting its amalgamation with the other services

Early medieval militarisation Ellora Bennett, Guido M. Berndt, Stefan Esders, Laury Sarti, 2021-04-13 The societies of ancient Europe underwent a continual process of militarisation and this would come to be a defining characteristic of the early Middle Ages The process was neither linear nor mono causal but it affected society as a whole encompassing features like the lack of demarcation between the military and civil spheres of the population the significance attributed to weapons beyond their military function and the wide recognition of martial values Early medieval militarisation assembles twenty studies that use both written and archaeological evidence to explore the phenomenon of militarisation and its impact on the development of the societies of early medieval Europe The interdisciplinary investigations break new ground and will be essential reading for scholars and students of related fields as well as non specialists with an interest in early medieval history

The Haskins Society Journal 23 Herbert Kessler, Hugh Doherty, Jay C. Rubenstein, Kirsten Fenton, 2014-04-17 This volume of the Haskins Society Journal furthers the Society's commitment to historical and interdisciplinary research on the early and central Middle Ages especially in the Anglo Saxon Anglo Norman and Angevin worlds but also on the continent The topics of the essays it contains range from the curious place of Francia in the historiography of medieval Europe to strategies of royal land distribution in tenth century Anglo Saxon England to the representation of men and masculinity in the works of Anglo Norman historians Essays on the place of polemical literature in Frutolf of Michelsberg's Chronicle exploration of the relationship between chivalry and crusading in Baudry of Bourgeuil's History and Cosmas of Prague's manipulation of historical memory in the service of ecclesiastical privilege and priority each extend the volume's engagement with medieval historiography employing rich continental examples to do so Investigations of comital personnel in Anjou and Henry II's management of royal forests and his foresters shed new light on the evolving nature of secular governance in the twelfth centuries and challenge and refine important aspects of our view of medieval rule in this period The volume ends with a wide ranging reflection on the continuing importance of the art object itself in medieval history and visual studies Contributors H F Doherty Kathryn Dutton Kirsten Fenton Paul Fouracre Herbert Kessler Ryan Lavelle Thomas J H McCarthy Lisa Wolverton Simon Yarrow
