

The background of the cover is a dark, textured surface, possibly wood or stone, with a warm, golden-brown glow. A single lit candle stands in the center, its flame bright and casting a soft light. In front of the candle, a simple metal ring with a small, dark stone is visible. Scattered across the surface are several small, white, four-pointed stars, giving the impression of a starry night sky or magical sparks. The overall mood is mysterious and romantic.

Denial, Negation, and the Forces of the Negative Wilfried Ver Eecke,2006-06-01 Finalist for the 2006 Goethe Award for Psychoanalytic Scholarship presented by the Section on Psychoanalytic and Psychodynamic Psychology of the Canadian Psychological Association It is often the case that painful truths emerge first in the form of denial one needs to create distance from what is painful In Denial Negation and the Forces of the Negative Wilfried Ver Eecke constructs a comprehensive lucid account of denial s psychological and philosophical dimensions while using Freud Hegel Lacan Spitz and Sophocles to help us understand this unavoidable aspect of human existence Ver Eecke acknowledges Hegel s claim that the road to truth is not a path of doubt but a highway of despair and argues via Hegel s ontology of the person that denial can be understood as a desiring being s defense against despair By examining the role of no saying in children Freud s claims about freedom of the will and its necessary prerequisites and Sophocles Oedipus Ver Eecke demonstrates the idea that denial is connected with situations in which the self image of a person is threatened He concludes with a colleague s autobiography to highlight the deep tragic experiences
