for mental function as form as an impossible object a container in which the container itself is the thing contained The book is an experiment in thinking difference and thinking differently an ethics of otherness and the abstract Spencer Golub inverts the unreality of the real and the reality of fiction exposing the tropes of memory identity and authenticity as a scenic route through life that ultimately blocks the view The Baroque Night draws upon materials that have not previously been included in studies of either the baroque or film noir while offering new perspectives on other more familiar sources Leibniz's concepts of the monad and compossibility provide organizing thought models and death fear and mental illness cast their anamorphic images across surfaces that are deeper and closer than they at first appear Key characters and situations in the book derive from the works of Alfred Hitchcock Henri Georges Clozot Jean Pierre Melville Oscar Wilde Georges Perec Patricia Highsmith William Shakespeare Jean Racine Pierre Corneille and Arthur Conan Doyle among many others This is virtuality and reality for the phobic making it a fascinating and viable document of and episteme for the anxious age in which we always find ourselves living though not yet fully alive This performance of suspect evidence speaks to and in the ways we are organically inauthentic the cause of our own causality and our own worst eyewitnesses to all that appears and disappears in space and time

Realist Film Theory and Bicycle Thieves Hilary Neroni, 2023-05-18 The Film Theory in Practice series fills a gaping hole in the world of film theory By marrying the explanation of a film theory with the interpretation of a film the volumes provide discrete examples of how film theory can serve as the basis for textual analysis Realist Film Theory and Bicycle Thieves offers a concise introduction to realist film theory in jargon free language and shows how this theory can be deployed to interpret Vittorio De Sica's 1948 Italian neo realist masterpiece Bicycle Thieves Hilary Neroni explores the original realist film theorists from the 1940s Andr Bazin Siegfried Kracauer and Cesare Zavattini among others But rather than seeing realist film theory as simply a theory of the past to be moved beyond the book argues that the prevalence of realism in many different forms within practice and theory suggests the importance of updating this original realist film theory with an understanding of realism that would sustain its viability Throughout the book Neroni analyzes neorealist film movements such as Italian Neorealism Parallel Cinema of India and the Iranian New Wave that challenge mainstream realism with a more radical form that exposes the social order instead of hiding it Her in depth investigation of Bicycle Thieves provides a realist methodology that reveals the radicality of its combination of realist techniques a melodramatic story and humanist values
