T Hartman, 2012-08 I was born on Flag Day 1935 the same year Social Security was enacted Consequently I have always felt a tug of birthday patriotism and as a child I secretly hoped the flags might be flying for my benefit Growing up with the SS system has been a comfort as well I didn t mind contributing to the pot all during my working years and I certainly appreciate the pay out during retirement Graduating from journalism school and working for ten years as a newspaper reporter and magazine editor gave me a chance to write about and promote what s right with America My generation saw dramatic changes throughout the 30s 40s and 50s which paralleled my coming of age over a 20 year span Recounting some of these events and how they impacted me as an only child with a bit of an attitude is the theme of the memoir Mukho Memories Don Haffner, 2017-05-18 Mukho Memories Don Haffner was a Peace Corps Volunteer in South Korea from 1972 through 1975 He taught ESL English as a Second Language to first year middle school students in the town of Mukho Gangwon Province In the summer of 1975 Don also served as a Volunteer TESOL Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages Instructor for the K 35 Peace Corps Korea s 35th training program

Mukho Memories is the humorous and entertaining story of Don Haffner's Peace Corps Service. Peace Corps Korea Peace Corps volunteers served in the Republic of Korea South Korea from 1966 through 1981. The majority of volunteers who served in Korea during this fifteen year period taught English as a Second Language. Others served in various health programs. By 1981 South Korea was rapidly developing into the modern capitalist and democratic nation that it is today and Peace Corps ended all its programs in the country.

Rich In Experience: A Memoir Charles B. Mikell, Jr., 2016-01-07 Rich in Experience is a memoir by the late Charles B Mikell Jr Chief Judge of the Georgia Court of Appeals. Judge Mikell or Charlie as many knew him became one of Georgia's great jurists but his path was long and winding. Rich in Experience takes the reader from Charlie's humble beginnings in coastal Georgia through the hallowed halls of Princeton University humid jungles of the Vietnam War grey uniformity of Communist Czechslovakia and rarified courtrooms throughout the State of Georgia. Charlie's stories about French kissing his high school dates smuggling a Czechslovak president's silverware and settling high stakes disputes in Georgia law among other things are sure to intrigue and delight. He began work on Rich in Experience after being diagnosed with multiple myeloma a cancer of the bone marrow. Throughout the following seven years until his death in 2013 Charlie meditated and reflected on the rich experiences of his life and produced this compelling volume.

The Son of My Father: The Memoir of a Preaching Minister/Educator John W Waters, PhD., 2023-11-22 About the Book As a sickly child John W Waters was told he would not live to five years old. His family large and dysfunctional was never any help especially his father who said John would never amount to much even if he did live to see adulthood. At three John's love of reading took over and with each year that passed he defied all the odds not only living long enough to see himself become an adult but earning top grades and graduating at the top of his class in high school. His father never attended his commencement. As his passion for religion and education grew John earned his PhD in the Hebrew Bible and taught at several higher education institutions ending his academic career as a chairperson of the Biblical Studies Department at the ITC in Atlanta. John's passion for the Lord is what drove him to begin a new career in ministry beginning as a youth minister and moving up through the ranks until he retired as a senior minister emeritus at the Greater Solid Rock Baptist Church. Receiving many honors and awards throughout his life for his community and religious service John succeeded in a world where most thought he would fail and now writes his inspiring journey in this one of a kind memoir for those who were always told they would never succeed. For those who see themselves as unworthy In the eyes of God you are and with hard work determination and a strong faith your journey can be just as fruitful. About the Author John W Waters PhD enjoys reading listening to good music cooking and writing poetry. After living for more than eight decades he no longer actively engages in civic and community activities as he had been.
