The Middle East And The United States Perceptions And Policies:

The Middle East and the United States Haim Shaked, Itamar Rabinovich, 1980-01-01 Like its two predecessors in the Collected Papers series this volume is based on the proceedings of an international colloquium held at Tel Aviv University. The colloquium was organized in March 1978 by the Shiloah Center in cooperation with the University's newly established Center for Strategic Studies. As the title and subtitle imply special emphasis was laid on the images and perceptions that people of the Middle East and the United States have had of one another and the way in which their relationship is viewed from within the area from Washington and from other pertinent vantage points. The conference also dealt with five other major issues: the historic background and evolution of American policy in the Middle East papers by Elie Kedourie from the London School of Economics and Wilfrid Knapp from Oxford University; American interests in the Middle East papers by Uzi Arad from Tel Aviv University, Gad Gilbar from Haifa University and Bernard Reich from George Washington University; the international context within which American policy in the area is conducted Ya'acov Ro'i from Tel Aviv University, Richard Rosecrance from Cornell University and Udo Steinbach from the Orient Institut in Hamburg; the formulation of American policies in the Middle East Steven Spiegel from UCLA; and America's bilateral relationship with several Middle Eastern states papers by Yoram Dinstein, Yair Evron, Gideon Gera, Itamar Rabinovich and Shimon Shamir from Tel Aviv University and John Waterbury from Princeton University. The papers which dealt directly with views, images and their depiction were presented by Bernard Lewis from Princeton University and the Institute for Advanced Study and Haim Shaked from Tel Aviv University.

Soviet Decision Making in Practice Yaacov Ro'i, The Soviet Union executed an apparent about face in its traditional anti Zionist position when the Palestine issue came before the United Nations in 1947 In addition to political support at the UN from May 1947 to May 1949 important military assistance was rendered to the Jewish Palestinian Yishuv throughout 1948 by the Eastern bloc Toward the end of that year however indications of change became apparent and the Soviet Union began criticizing Israel This book studies the USSR s attitude toward the establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine in the immediate post World War II period and toward Israel in the first years of its existence and it investigates the complex of considerations that caused the initial apparent reversal of traditional Soviet anti Zionism The author contends that this support for Israel contributed considerably to the evoking of Soviet Jewry s enthusiastic reaction to the establishment of the State But this very reaction resulted in turn in Moscow changing its tactics again since it could not allow its Jewish citizens to identify with a state outside the Soviet Union and the Communist orbit During the few years after the Israeli War for Independence in which the Arab Israeli conflict was relatively low key the USSR adopted a position of seeming neutrality between two sides while quietly wooing the Arab nations Ro i examines how toward the end of the Stalin period the Jewish problem again intervened with the infamous Doctor s Plot and how early in 1953 the Soviet Union severed diplomatic relations with Israel One year later the USSR cast its first two pro Arab vetoes in the UN Security Council and from this point on Soviet Israeli relations openly became a function of the increasingly cordial Soviet friendship with the Arab world
