The Memorial:

A Statement of Facts connected with the Memorial recently presented ... to the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda, relative to the education of Catholics at the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Catholic Church.

Congregatio de Propaganda Fide, 1865 The Memorial Ethics of Libeskind's Berlin Jewish Museum Arleen Ionescu, 2017-02-20 This book is a detailed critical study of Libeskind's Berlin Jewish Museum in its historical architectural and philosophical context Emphasizing how the Holocaust changed our perception of history memory witnessing and representation it develops the notion of memorial ethics to explore the Museum's difference from more conventional post World War Two commemorative sites The main focus is on the Museum as an experience of the materiality of trauma which engages the visitor in a performative duty to remember Arleen Ionescu builds on Levinas's idea of ethics as optics to show how Libeskind's Museum becomes a testimony to the unrepresentable Other Ionescu also extends the Museum's experiential dimension by proposing her own subjective walk through Libeskind's space reimagined as a literary museum Featuring reflections on texts by Beckett Celan Derrida Kafka Blanchot Wiesel and Selma Meerbaum-Eisinger Celan's cousin this virtual tour concludes with a brief account of Libeskind's analogous healing project for Ground Zero Traditions and Customs of the Indian Armed Forces Chand N. Das, S.P. Sinha, 2025-10-27 The cohesion and the spirit de corps in the Indian Armed Forces Army Navy and the Air Force is fostered by various customs and traditions which are reflected in the daily lives of their officers and men They are not always legally binding but they are nonetheless followed willingly without coercion There are traditions handed down from the past Valour Honour and Never to Surrender that are intrinsic and resonate the lives of servicemen and image of their regiments and formations On the other hand there are customs and traditions that regulate the lives of soldiers sailors and airmen on a daily basis military courtesies dress and mess customs regimental traditions ceremonial drills and parades and the like The various facets of customs and traditions of the armed forces were originally compiled by late Maj Gen Chand N Das The present volume has been inspired by the original and contains edited updated and enlarged facets that have been arranged in seven parts containing 33 chapters Each chapter deals with different aspects of customs and traditions viz flags colours and emblem military uniform and dress customs commemorative days state and military funerals battle honours war memorials medals and ribbons and so on Federal Register, 1984-10-10 Curating and Re-curating the American Wars in Vietnam and Iraq Christine Sylvester, 2019

We have long saved and curated objects from wars to commemorate the war experience These objects appear at national museums and memorials and are often mentioned in war novels and memoirs Through them we institutionalize narratives and memories of national identity as well as international power and purpose While people interpret war in different ways and there is no ultimate authority on the experiences of any war curators of war objects make different choices about what to display or write about none of which are entirely problematic good or accurate This book asks whose vantage points on war are made available and where for public consumption it also questions whose war experiences are not represented are minimized or ignored in ways that advantage contemporary militarism Christine Sylvester looks at four sites of war memory the National Museum of American History the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Arlington National Cemetery and selected novels and memoirs of the American wars in Vietnam and Iraq to consider the way war knowledge is embedded in differing sites of memory and display While the museum shows war aircraft and a laptop computer used by a journalist covering the American war in Iraq visitors to the Vietnam Memorial or Arlington Cemetery find more prosaic and civilian items on view such as baby pictures slices of birthday cake or even car keys In addition memoirs and novels of these wars tend to curate ghastly horrors of wars as experienced by soldiers or civilians For Sylvester these sites of war memory and curation provide ways to understand dispersed war authority and interpretation and to consider which sites invite viewers to revere a war and which reflect personal experiences that show the undersides of these wars Sylvester shows that scholars policymakers and other citizens need to consider different types of situated memory and knowledge in order to fully grasp war rather than idealize it
