The Middle East City Ancient Traditions Confront A Modern World:

The Middle East City Abdulaziz Y. Saqqaf, 1987 The Mamluk City in the Middle East Nimrod Luz, 2014-04-28

The Mamluk City in the Middle East offers an interdisciplinary study of urban history urban experience and the nature of urbanism in the region under the rule of the Mamluk Sultanate 1250 1517 The book focuses on three less explored but politically significant cities in the Syrian region Jerusalem Safad now in Israel and Tripoli now in Lebanon and presents a new approach and methodology for understanding historical cities Drawing on diverse textual sources and intensive field surveys Nimrod Luz reveals the character of the Mamluk city as well as various aspects of urbanism in the region establishing the pre modern city of the Middle East as a valid and useful lens through which to study various themes such as architecture art history history and politics of the built environment As part of this approach Luz considers the processes by which Mamluk discourses of urbanism were conceptualized and then inscribed in the urban environment as concrete expressions of architectural design spatial planning and public memorialization

Modernism and the Middle East Sandy Isenstadt, Kishwar Rizvi, 2011-03-01 This provocative collection of essays is the first book length treatment of the development of modern architecture in the Middle East Ranging from Jerusalem at the turn of the twentieth century to Libya under Italian colonial rule postwar Turkey and on to present day Iraq the essays cohere around the historical encounter between the politics of nation building and architectural modernism s new materials methods and motives Architecture as physical infrastructure and as symbolic expression provides an exceptional window onto the powerful forces that shaped the modern Middle East and that continue to dominate it today Experts in this volume demonstrate the political dimensions of both creating the built environment and subsequently inhabiting it In revealing the tensions between achieving both international relevance and regional meaning Modernism in the Middle East affords a dynamic view of the ongoing confrontations of deep traditions with rapid modernization Political and cultural historians as well as architects and urban planners will find fresh material here on a range of diverse practices

The Middle East , 1989 Mandated Landscape Roza El-Eini, 2004-11-23 In this ground breaking authoritative study a highly documented and incisive analysis is made of the galvanising changes wrought to the people and landscape of British Mandated Palestine 1929 1948 Using a comprehensive and interdisciplinary approach the book s award winning author examines how the British imposed their rule dominated by the clashing dualities of their Mandate obligations towards the Arabs and the Jews and their own interests The rulers Empire wide conceptions of the White man s burden and preconceptions of the Holy Land were potent forces of change influencing their policies Lucidly written Mandated Landscape is also a rich source of information supported by numerous maps tables and illustrations and has 66 appendices a considerable bibliography and extensive index With a theoretical and historical backdrop the ramifications of British rule are highlighted in their impact on town planning agriculture forestry land the partition plans and a case study presenting discussions on such issues as development ecological shock law and the controversial division of village lands as the British operated in a politically turbulent climate often within their own administration This book is a major contribution to research on British Palestine and will interest those in Middle East history geography development and colonial postcolonial studies Gated Communities Samer Bagaeen,Ola Uduku,2010-02-09

Gated Communities provides a historic socio political and contemporary cultural perspective of gated communities In doing so it offers a different lens through which to view the historical vernacular background of this now global phenomenon The book presents a collection of new writing on the issue by an international and interdisciplinary group of contributors The authors review current thinking on gated communities and consider the sustainability issues that these contemporary lifestyle communities raise The authors argue that there are links that can be drawn between the historic gated homesteads and cities found in much of the world and today s Western style secure complexes Global examples of gated communities and their historical context are presented throughout the book The authors also comment on how sustainability issues have impacted on these communities The book concludes by considering how the historic measures up with the contemporary in terms of sustainability function and aesthetic Regional Science in Developing Countries Manas Chatterji,Kaizong Yang,2016-07-27

Developing countries are suffering from the multiple and overlapping problems of poverty malnutrition excessive population growth and also the increased environmental pollution due to rapid industrialization and urbanization particularly in the existing urban centres The migration from rural areas of agricultural population to urban areas is making this situation more problematic The lack of established institutions leads to the failure of public policy no matter how efficiently it is formulated The book discusses the major regional developmental problems in poor countries covering economic social and environmental problems It deals with case studies for a set of individual countries and discusses their unique problems investigating how the established methods of regional science can be used to solve some of these problems
