path between being a child and an adult As every music student is completely unique there is no one size fits all prescriptive way of working with this age group Rather music educators must approach adolescents with high musical standards and aspirations to learn and achieve within music a willingness to honor the individuality of each adolescent musician a sense of structure but an ability to be flexible a desire to foster and promote a safe classroom environment where students feel empowered to be themselves and speak openly about what they think and believe an understanding that music classes are not only safe places where students learn how to become better musicians but also better people through musical experiences focused on humanity and empathy and a dose of humor or at least the ability to acknowledge that adolescents are extremely funny whether or not they realize it In addition this book encourages pre service and practicing music educators to mindfully examine and better understand their own teaching practices
