Writing Qualitatively Johnny Saldana, 2018-04-09 Writing Qualitatively The Selected Works of Johnny Salda a showcases the diverse range of writing styles available to qualitative researchers through the work one of the most internationally cited and referenced methodologists The traditional academic journal article still holds its place as a convention of published scholarship but Salda a illustrates how a variety of approaches to research documentation can evocatively represent social life and one s self in intriguing ways Writing Qualitatively assembles journal articles book chapters ancillary materials texts from keynote addresses and previously unpublished work that illustrate Salda a s eclectic body of inquiry Each piece is prefaced with author comments on the selection and how readers themselves might venture into comparable writing styles Multiple methodologies and writing examples are included ranging from case studies to action research from poetry to ethnodramatic play scripts from confessional tales to autoethnographies and from textbook materials to classroom session designs An introduction to the collection discusses Salda a s writing processes and how qualitative researchers and educators can extend their own imaginations and creativity to find new forms of scholarly presentation and representation Writing Qualitatively serves as a supplemental text for undergraduate and graduate courses in qualitative inquiry educational research ethnography and arts based research This unique anthology demonstrates to students professors and professional researchers how academic scholarship can be reported through a breadth of literary genres elements and styles

Epistemologies of Ignorance in Education Erik Malewski, Nathalia Jaramillo, 2011-03-01 Epistemologies of Ignorance provide educators a distinct epistemological view on questions of marginalization oppression relations of power and dominance difference philosophy and even death among our youth The authors of this edited collection challenge the ambivalence ignorance found in the construction of curriculum teaching practices research guidelines and policy mandates in our schools Further ignorance is also considered a necessary by product of knowledge production In this sense the authors explore not only issues of complicity but also issues of oppression in spite of educators liberatory intentions While this is the first systematic effort to transfer epistemologies of ignorance to the educational scene this movement has its roots in race class gender and sexuality studies particularly the work of Charles Mills Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Shannon Sullivan and Nancy Tuana It is our unequivocal belief that while this is transformative and powerful scholarship the study of ignorance remains understudied and under theorized in education scholarship from curriculum studies and cultural foundations to science education and educational psychology This collection highlights without apology why this dangerous state of affairs cannot continue
