Bartholomew,2012-12-04 The lake surface was glass My girlfriend and I were fishing from our anchored rowboat in about fifteen feet of water facing the New York shore Ron what s that I turned About thirty feet away I saw three dark humps protruding about two feet above the surface The humps were perhaps two or three feet apart They didn t move We didn t either We watched in disbelief for about ten seconds The humps slowly sank into the water There was no wake no telltale sign of movement Unexplained Eerie Unsettling from the Foreword by Ronald S Kermani Scotland may have Nessie the Loch Ness Monster but we have Champ the legendary serpent like monster of Lake Champlain The first recorded sighting of Champ in 1609 has been attributed to the lake s namesake French explorer and cartographer

Samuel de Champlain This is pure myth but there have been hundreds of sightings since then Robert E Bartholomew embarks on his own search both of the lake firsthand and through period sources and archives many never before published Although he finds the trail obscured by sloppy journalism local leaders motivated by tourism income and bickering monster hunters he weighs the evidence to craft a rich colorful history of Champ From the nineteenth century when Champ was a household name to 1977 when he appeared in Sandra Mansi s controversial photograph Bartholomew covers it all Real or imaginary Champ and his story will fascinate believers and skeptics alike Guerrilla Prince: The Untold Story Of Fi Georgie Geyer,2011-02-01 Based on hundreds of interviews conducted over many years in 28 countries including extensive personal interviews with Castro himself Georgie Anne Geyer reveals the untold story of Fidel Castro in this definitive biography The Untold Story of Everything Digital Tom Green,2019-09-10 The Untold Story of Everything Digital Bright Boys Revisited celebrates the 70th anniversary 1949 2019 of the world going digital for the very first time real time digital computing s genesis story That genesis story is taken from the 2010 edition of Bright Boys The Making of Information Technology 1938 1958 and substantially expanded upon for this special anniversary edition Please join us for the incredible adventure that is The Untold Story of Everything Digital when a band of misfit engineers led by MIT s Jay Forrester and Bob Everett birthed the digital revolution The bright boys were the first to imagine an electronic landscape of computing machines and digital networks and the first to blaze its high tech trails The Untold Story of the Talking Book Matthew Rubery,2023-01-18 A history of audiobooks from entertainment rehabilitation for blinded World War I soldiers to a twenty first century competitive industry Histories of the book often move straight from the codex to the digital screen Left out of that familiar account are nearly 150 years of audio recordings Recounting the fascinating history of audio recorded literature Matthew Rubery traces the path of innovation from Edison s recitation of Mary Had a Little Lamb for his tinfoil phonograph in 1877 to the first novel length talking books made for blinded World War I veterans to today s billion dollar audiobook industry The Untold Story of the Talking Book focuses on the social impact of audiobooks not just the technological history in telling a story of surprising and impassioned conflicts from controversies over which books the Library of Congress selected to become talking books yes to Kipling no to Flaubert to debates about what defines a reader Delving into the vexed relationship between spoken and printed texts Rubery argues that storytelling can be just as engaging with the ears as with the eyes and that audiobooks deserve to be taken seriously They are not mere derivatives of printed books but their own form of entertainment We have come a long way from the era of sound recorded on wax cylinders when people imagined one day hearing entire novels on mini phonographs tucked inside their hats Rubery tells the untold story of this incredible evolution and in doing so breaks from convention by treating audiobooks as a distinctively modern art form that has profoundly influenced the way we read Praise for The Untold Story of the Talking Book If audiobooks are relatively new to your world you might wonder where they came from and where they re going And for general fans of the intersection

The Border and the Buffalo: An Untold Story of the Southwest Plains John R. Cook,2020-09-28 I was born in Mount Gilead Ohio on the 19th of December 1844 Father moved his family to Lawrence Kansas in the spring of 1857 That summer we occupied the historical log cabin that J H Lane and Gaius Jenkins had trouble over resulting in the tragic death of the latter Shortly prior to the killing of Jenkins we moved to Peru Indiana where we remained until the latter part of March 1861 when the family returned to Kansas Myself and oldest brother traveled overland by team and wagon We had three head of horses We left the State line of Indiana at Danville and crossed the Mississippi to Hannibal Missouri the day that General Beauregard fired on Fort Sumter And the War of the Rebellion was on As we were driving up a street in the evening of that great day an old gentleman standing at the gate in front of a cottage hailed us and asked where we were going To Kansas was brother s reply The old gentleman walked out to where we had stopped and said Boys you are goin into a peck of trouble General Buregard cannonaded Fort Sumter to day and is at it yit Boys I d turn round and go back to whar ye come from Brother said No Uncle we could never think of such a thing Our father and mother are now at Lawrence Kansas and we must go to them He replied That place you are going to will be a dangerous place There has already been a power of trouble out thar whar you are goin and thar s bound to be a heap more and all over the nigger too I own nineteen of em but if it would stop the spillin of blood I would free every one of em to night This old gentleman had a kind pleasant looking face wore the typical planter s hat and seemed to take a fatherly interest in us directed us to a certain farm house on our road where we could get accommodations for the night And we passed on having for the first time in our lives seen and talked with the owner of human chattels Some neighbors came to the house where we stayed that night and in earnest fireside talk conveyed the idea that there would be no war for said they when the North finds out that we are in earnest they will not fight us My brother being four years older than I took part in the evening s talk and told them that it was but fair to leave the negro out of the question and to consider the Union as our forefathers left it to us and that he did not think that twenty odd millions of people would consent to have the Union of our forefathers dismembered The next day as we were passing through a densely timbered region an old negro came out from behind a large tree near the wagon track His wool was white as snow his head was bared and holding in one hand an apology for a hat he gave us a courteous bow and said Please Mars is we gwine to be free Their underground telegraph was already bringing word from South Carolina to Missouri My brother being more diplomatic than I could or would have been at the time said to him Why you surprise me Grandpop You look fat and sleek and

I know you have more freedom this minute than I have
